

Ph.D. / Counseling Psychology

CLASS ENTERING 2008

TO BE SUBMITTED BY THE FALL SEMESTER OF THE 2ND YEAR IN THE PROGRAM

This Program of Study is to be used by those students entering the doctoral program with or without a Master's degree in Counseling or a related area. Required courses must be taken as part of your graduate program to fulfill APA accreditation criteria.

In planning this Program of Studies, you should plan in close collaboration with your faculty advisor. Together, you will review your previous graduate study and arrive at a sound professional training program conforming to the standards established by Boston College and the American Psychological Association.

* Indicate semester and year course was taken or will be taken. If course was waived or substituted with another course, attach "Transfer or Waiver Form."

 Grades are only needed for required courses.

 As a guide to indicating how a student fulfills a prerequisite, please use the following codes in completing this program of study:

1. Completed course for academic credit
2. Independent mastery of course syllabus (see attached documentation)
3. Other (please indicate in an addendum attached to this form)

Please note that all of the aforementioned courses and competencies are required by the doctoral program in Counseling Psychology at Boston College. The minimum number of credits required by the Lynch School of Education for a doctoral degree is 54 credits. However, the specific array of requirements for the MA admit yields a minimum credit total of 72 credits; for the Direct Admit students, the minimum credit total is 81 credits. (These credit totals are based on the assumption that the students do not have previous relevant course work.)
