Code 58

Academic Year 2011-2012

The PERSPECTIVES ON SPANISH AMERICA INTERDISCIPLINARY MAJOR (9 courses/(27 Credits)) is available as a second major to students in the Lynch School of Education pursuing an Elementary Education program in fulfillment of their College of Arts and Sciences major for certification requirements as well as Human Development majors. Secondary students cannot pursue this major and be certified.

The major is recommended for students who may have had at least two years of high school Spanish and wish to develop Spanish language skills, coupled with a background in the historical, sociological, and literary traditions of Spanish American cultures. This major is particularly appropriate for students with an intended career objective to teach children of Hispanic origin.

• Romance Languages and Literatures Requirements

A minimum of 4 courses in Romance Languages and Literatures are required at the 200 level or above. At least one must be at the 600 level. Choose courses with focus on Spanish America.

To determine the starting level of language courses students must contact Dr. Jeff Flagg james.flagg@bc.edu of the Romance Languages and Literatures Department
