MISSING DATA: CREATING SOMETHING FROM NOTHING
February 8, 2010
Larry Ludlow, PhD, Professor; Department Chair, Educational Research, Measurement, and Evaluation Department

AGE MATTERS: IMPLICATIONS OF EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCES FOR OLDER WORKERS
February 22, 2010
Marcie Pitt Catsoupes, PhD, Director, The Sloan Center on Aging and Work

DOES FAMILY INVOLVEMENT IN EDUCATION PROMOTE THE ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT OF CHILDREN GROWING UP POOR?
March 8, 2010
Eric Dearing, PhD, Assistant Professor, Counseling, Developmental and Educational Psychology

THE JOYS AND PITFALLS OF SECONDARY DATA ANALYSIS
March 22, 2010
Susan Kelly-Weeder, PhD, MS, RNCS, FNP, Assistant Professor

ENVIRONMENTAL CONTROL OF EATING: BEHAVIOR & BRAIN MECHANISMS
April 5, 2010
Gorica Petrovich, PhD, Assistant Professor, Psychology

IRB PROCESSES
April 26, 2010
Steve Erickson, PhD, Interim Director, Office of Research Protections

THE BROWN BAG LUNCH SEMINAR SERIES
is designed to provide a forum for an intellectual exchange of ideas pertaining to a an area of scholarship, including but not limited to a research issue or project. All members of the BC community are invited to attend. Seminars take place on Mondays from 12–1 pm in Cushing 411/412.