Faculty Openings: 2016-17 School Year
Two (2) Middle School Teaching Positions
Start Date: August 26, 2016

Overview
BJP is a middle school that serves low-income students from the Crown Heights neighborhood of Brooklyn. Founded in the Nativity model, BJP offers small, single-gender classes at a very low cost to the families. The curriculum is dynamic and allows for great teachers to get the most out of their students. Class sizes are a maximum of 15 pupils. The students are required to stay for an extended day and participate in our summer camp at Fairfield University.

Job Description
BJP seeks two driven and passionate teachers to join our mission for the 2016-17 school year. These positions range from the sciences to the humanities; teachers with experience in science, English/literature, reading and social studies will be considered. Teachers at BJP must not only be classroom leaders but also serve as role models for our students as we mold them in the Jesuit tradition of becoming ‘men and women for others’. In addition to teaching, positions include homeroom leadership, advisory and extended day activities. Other duties as assigned by principal.

Minimum Qualifications
• A Bachelor’s degree and two years of teaching experience
• A strong commitment to the values and principles of Catholic education
• Willingness to participate in Jesuit spiritual and professional development programs
• Superior communication skills and the ability to be a positive contributor in a collegial atmosphere

Compensation
Salary will be commensurate with experience.

Applicants should submit a current resume, letter of interest, list of references and one professional letter of recommendation to:
