Responsibilities:
- Teach multiple sections of Religious Studies.
- Hold regular office hours and meet with students who need assistance.
- Communicate regularly with parents and administrators to ensure the success of each student.
- Collaborate with colleagues on Religious Studies curriculum development and implementation.
- Attend workshops and seminars to enhance teaching.
- Collaborate with colleagues on professional growth projects.
- Fulfill periodic substitution and prefecting responsibilities.

Qualifications:
- Bachelor’s degree in a related field. A master’s degree is preferred.
- Experience teaching at high school or college levels.
- Knowledge in the latest methodology and pedagogy for teaching Religious Studies at the high school level.
- Familiarity with the use of technology in the classroom.

Physical Requirements:
- Ability to lift 10 pounds.
- Ability to regularly, safely, and comfortably move around our 27-acre campus.

School Requirements:
- TB certification.
- Fingerprinting - must not have felony convictions or other serious violations.
- Must be able to read, write and speak fluent English.
- Ability to work legally in the United States (H1B and H2B Visa are not available).
Application Process: Interested applicants should submit a job application along with personal résumé, a letter of intent and purpose, and a list of three professional references to Matt Haven, Assistant Principal for Instruction at Bellarmine, by April 22, 2016. The job application can be downloaded at www.bcp.org/employment. Qualified applicants who have submitted all required documents will be contacted regarding the next steps.
