Campus Minister for Liturgical Music
POSITION SUMMARY
The Campus Minister for Liturgical Music at Villanova University is responsible for supporting the Mission of the University as expressed in the Mission of Campus Ministry. This is done primarily through a) their role as a Campus Minister who shares responsibility with all of the Campus Ministry staff for the continued spiritual formation and pastoral care of the Villanova community and b) in coordinating the liturgical music program at the University, ensuring that program's adherence to the liturgical vision of the University, especially in regards to incorporating a variety of musical styles and appropriate cultural expression. Furthermore, the Campus Minister for Liturgical Music fosters the active participation of the liturgical assembly in singing; coordinates the preparation of music to be sung at various liturgical celebrations; and promotes the ministries of choirs, psalmists, cantors, organists, and all who play instruments that serve the liturgy. The Campus Minister for Liturgical Music is a member of the Center for Worship and Spirituality and is responsible for the management of music at Villanova University liturgies (when classes are in session) for Sundays, Holy Days, university-wide liturgies and other liturgies as directed by the Liturgist.
