Coordinator of Student Ministry at New Roads Catholic Community

Who we are:
We are New Roads Catholic Community in Belmont, MA. We’re two Roman Catholic parishes in the Archdiocese of Boston, St. Joseph and St. Luke, working together to reinvigorate our Church and faith community by reaching out to those who have become disconnected from the Church and by challenging our members to grow as intentional disciples. We’re assembling a team of enthusiastic, driven, and talented people who want to join us in this awesome mission of rebuilding our Church!

What you'll do:
This newly created full-time role will be a crucial part of our team and will help us to establish a student ministry program for both parishes focused on helping students develop a relationship with Jesus Christ and grow as his disciples:

- Launch a regular (ideally bi-weekly) high school worship program, including games, worship, message, and small groups.
- Prepare current tenth-grade students for Confirmation in spring 2017 through a transitional preparation process.
- Design a Confirmation process for subsequent years that is consistent with our overall approach to evangelization and discipleship.
- Develop processes to actively engage teens in ministry in the parish and in service in the wider community.
- Assist with Spark gatherings for middle school students.
- In conjunction with other team members, develop a student band ministry to play at middle- and high school worship gatherings.
- Host at least three gatherings for young adults during the year.
- Participate as an active member of the pastoral team; attend team meetings and contribute to team projects.

Who you are:
You are a highly motivated Christian leader, committed to helping young people enter into a life-changing relationship with God. You have demonstrated success in engaging students and young adults in growing as intentional disciples of Jesus Christ, with preferably at least two years of experience in a Catholic setting. You can provide the vision and leadership to develop a transformative student ministry program and raise up new leaders for the future. You have strong communication and organizational skills and are experienced in working with volunteers. You are attentive to detail and care about the details of crafting excellent experiences. You are creative, flexible, and have a great sense of humor. You love to think outside the box and come up with creative solutions. Although you enjoy working with others, you also know how to work independently and get things done. You are able to admit mistakes, learn new tools, and take on new challenges. You are committed to growth in your own relationship with Jesus Christ. You have a willingness to support the mission of the Catholic Church and are eager to join a dynamic and ambitious team.
