Director of Faith Formation
Saint Andrew Church
Clemson, SC

Saint Andrew Catholic Church is a parish of 600 households also serving the Clemson University Community. The director of faith formation is a full-time, salaried position. The director will be responsible for promoting, monitoring, and initiating religious education programs and faith formation for children (preK-5th grade) and adults. Includes oversight (setting goals and objectives, implementing strategies, and monitoring programs) for the faith formation of children, pre-K-grade 5 (including preparation and celebration of First Reconciliation and Eucharist) and adult faith formation. Please submit materials by April 24, 2016.

Qualifications:

- Roman Catholic and active in his or her parish or worshipping community
- Degree or certification in a theological discipline or in education, child development, or youth development.
- Prior experience in religious education, faith formation, or youth ministry, preferably in a parish setting.
- Administrative, supervisory, and communication skills; ability to lead both large and small groups; competent in the use of technology

Send applications or inquiries to Ed Bowers: edmondb@clemson.edu

About the Employer

For more about Saint Andrew Parish, go to saclemson.org