Pope John XXIII High School Head of School

Pope John XXIII High School is a coeducational, 9 - 12, college preparatory high school located in Everett, MA. Currently beginning its 50th year, Pope John XXIII was founded by Cardinal Cushing and the Sisters of St. Joseph in 1966. Located at 888 Broadway, Pope John originally educated students from the Greater Everett-Malden area. In 2004, Pope John became an independent high school run by an independent Board of Trustees. Currently, Pope John enrolls 260 students which include 100 international students from Angola, Brazil, China, Italy, Poland, and Spain. Approximately half of the international students reside on campus and the others reside in local homestay programs. Pope John offers a college-preparatory program including 8 Advanced Placement subjects. In the fall of 2016, Pope John will begin a grade 8 program, the Roncalli Prep Program. Pope John operates under a Head of School (President/Principal) structure with the Principal in charge of the academic program and the Head of School functioning as the chief executive officer and face of the school to the larger community.

The Board of Trustees seeks the following qualities in the next Head of School:

- A visionary leader with proven experience that includes fundraising, strategic planning, enrollment management, branding and communication skills.

- A person who embraces the Catholic mission of Pope John XXIII High School and will exemplify and promote the core values of the school

- An accomplished professional who can engage effectively with constituents while raising the profile of the school and its students.

Position Available: July 1, 2016

Contract: A competitive contract will be negotiated with the Board of Trustees.

Please apply through School Spring. Deadline: May 1, 2016