

30th Anniversary Celebration

Opening Week Events

Finalmente

Friday, October 16, 2009

7:00-11:30 p.m.

O'Neill Plaza

Come enjoy performances by BC bOp! and Fuego, a fashion show, and the AHANA Acronym cake-cutting ceremony! Finalmente serves as both the closing of Hispanic Heritage Month and the kick-off of the 30th Anniversary Celebration of the AHANA Acronym, symbolizing the importance of celebrating history and heritage all year long.

AHANA Resource Central

Monday, October 19, 2009

3:00-5:00 p.m.

Gasson 100

Join faculty, staff, and administrators in the 30th Anniversary Celebration of the AHANA Acronym! We welcome all students to learn about the array of AHANA resources and ethnic studies programs available. Light refreshments will be served.

Unspoken: Voices of America

Wednesday, October 21, 2009

6:00-8:00 p.m.

Devlin 101 & the McMullen Museum

This collaboration with the McMullen Museum will bring students, staff, and faculty to the current exhibit of First Hand Civil War Era Drawings from the Becker Collection. The event will begin with a panel discussion to provide historical context to the drawings and talk about the social implications of that history for the AHANA community today.

30 Years, AHANA Spirit

Thursday, October 22, 2009

6:30-8:00 p.m.

Robsham Theater (Reception: Gate 1st Floor Lounge)

Hear from prominent past student leaders as they speak on the role of the AHANA Acronym in their student experience at BC. View a timeline of the AHANA Movement and learn about a vital piece of our school history. Afterwards, visit the reception to mingle with alumni and enjoy a variety of desserts provided by BC's culture clubs.
