

You are cordially invited to the
6th Annual Asian Pacific American Heritage Month
Opening Ceremony

Please join us in celebrating Asian Pacific American culture and experience on Friday, the twenty-eighth of March two thousand and eight at five o'clock in the evening in the Murray Function Room located in the Yawkey Athletic Center.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

GILES LI is a founder of the Boston Progress Arts Collective and Arts Coordinator at the Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center. He is a spoken word artist who recently launched a national tour of college campuses with two other performance artists, Bao Phi and Kiwi, entitled "The Beats, Rhymes, and Rice Tour". Giles will address the importance of both personal and cultural identity to go along with APAHM's theme, "Know to Be Known".

Please RSVP to BostonCollegeAPAHM@gmail.com by March 26, 2008.
