

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Anna Befort

I. International Experience

Paris Critical Studies Program, Université de Paris-Paris III, Paris France, Spring Semester 2001

- Attended 5 courses for 15 college credits
- Spent four weeks traveling around Europe and experiencing different cultures
- Took courses in French Cinema, Art and Communication all taught in French

II. Academic Component

Language: French

- 7 college courses in French

Humanities Courses:

- Masterpieces in French Literature
- Topics in French Culture and Civilization
- Women in 18th Century French Literature and Culture

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Intercultural Communication
- American Foreign Policy

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Appalachia Volunteer

November 1999 – March 2000

- Description: Traveled to the Mississippi Delta to work on the construction of houses for and with families in need. Participated in community outreach programs.
- Skills: Construction/building skills, group work, networking, empathy.
- Time Commitment: 1 hour a week, plus entire spring break.

Activity 2: Member, Amnesty International

September 2001 – December 2001

- Description: Worked with group to raise awareness of global human rights issues and to work for change. Helped with letter writing campaigns and canvassed campus constituencies for support.
- Skills: Critical thinking and social awareness.
- Time Commitment: 1 hour a week for the entire semester.

Activity 3: Events and Lectures

Fall Semester 2001

- Description: Attended at least five international and cultural events on the Boston College Campus.
- Skills: Deepened awareness of different cultures and raised awareness of international political issues.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours a week for 5 weeks.

Service Project: Mentor, Boston College Neighborhood Center

January 1999 – May 1999

- Description: Mentored young multi-ethnic kids and helped them with their homework, as well as directed them in after school activities at the Edison School in Brighton, MA.
- Skills: Teaching, organization, basic math and art skills.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours a week for entire semester.

---

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

---

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College