Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Christopher Mang

I. International Experience

Hong Kong University of Science & Technology, Hong Kong, China, January – May 2001

- Took 5 college courses for 15 college credits.

II. Academic Component

Language: Chinese

- 2 college courses in Mandarin, plus courses in China in Chinese.

Humanities Courses:

- The Religious Quest I
- The Religious Quest II

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Bermuda Law
- Race Relations

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Member, Filipino Society of Boston College September 1999 – May 2000

- Description: Worked as a member of the Filipino Society to coordinate, choreograph and dance in two major events co-sponsored by the society. Worked to promote and increase awareness of the Filipino culture, specifically traditional dance, within the Boston College community.
- Skills: Organization, leadership, choreography, dance.
- Time Commitment: 3-6 hours a week

Activity 2: Treasurer and PR Director, Hong Kong Club September 2000 – May 2001

- Description: Worked with group to promote Hong Kong Cantonese aspect of Chinese culture throughout Boston College and the greater Boston community. Worked to bring about cultural awareness. Handled all budgeting accounts as well as public relations between all the Asian Caucus clubs and the Hong Kong Club.
- Skills: Accounting, public relations, advertising, communication among Asian Caucus organizations.
- Time Commitment: 3 – 4 hours a week

Activity 3: President, Chinese Student Association September 2000 – May 2001

- Description: Worked within the Boston College community to promote Chinese heritage and culture. Set agendas for the committee and led meetings.
- Skills: Leadership, organization, communication, awareness of current issues.
- Time Commitment: 3 - 4 hours a week.

Service Project: Hong Kong Disability Project Spring Semester, 2001

- Description: Work with a disabled person in Hong Kong to better understand the discrimination of disabled people. Wrote a diary about the experience, and learned methods of integrating the disabled into a non-disabled society.
- Skills: Patience, empathy, Chinese language.
- Time Commitment: 1 full day

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College