

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Dawn K. Lozada

I. International Experience

Al Akhawayn University, Ifrane, Morocco, January 2001 – May 2001

- Attended 5 courses for 15 college credits

II. Academic Component

Language: French

- Tested out of college requirement, 2 college courses in French

Humanities Courses:

- Literature and Culture of North Africa
- Introduction to Asian-American Literature

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Cultural Psychology
- Culture and Identity of the Asian-American Experience
- Psychology of Prejudice and Racism
- Race Relations

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Summer Intern, Department of the State, Washington D.C.

June 2001 – August 2001

- Description: Worked with the State Department on cross-cultural programming between the U.S. and overseas consulates. Learned about the performing, visual and fine arts of other countries.
- Skills: Public speaking and cross-cultural sensitivity.
- Time Commitment: 20 hours a week.

Activity 2: President, Boston College Asian Caucus

September 2001- May 2002

- Description: Acted as the representative of all 9 Asian cultural clubs to help promote and preserve the importance of Asian and Asian-American issues. Lead meetings, coordinated guest speakers, organized September 11th charity events and worked on the Global Justice Project.
- Skills: Public speaking, time management, delegation, fostering positive group dynamics.
- Time Commitment: 10 hours a week.

Activity 3: Member, Boston College AHANA Leadership Council

September 2000 – May 2001

- Description: Worked with council to bridge the gap between and among AHANA groups and others through political, social and cultural means. Programmed events that brought awareness of the issues that different minority groups deal with to the entire BC community.
- Skills: Intercultural communication, social justice awareness, and event planning.
- Time Commitment: 5 hours a week.

Service Project: Volunteer, Supplemental Program of Educational Skills (SPES)

September 2000- December 2000

- Description: Tutored African-American and Hispanic youth in various subjects as well as promoted leadership and moral character.
- Skills: Teaching, patience, intercultural communication
- Time Commitment: 4 hours a week.

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College