

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Lydia Khalil

I. International Experience

- Internship at the U.S. State Department U.S. Embassy, Manama, Bahrain, June – August 2001.
- Internship at the Euro Information Center, Trier, Germany, June – August 1999.

II. Academic Component

Language: Spanish

- AP credit in Spanish, plus 5 college courses.

Humanities Courses:

- Middle East in the 20th Century
- Minorities in the Middle East
- Urban Poor: Brazil, Mexico and Central America
- Revolutionary Cuba
- History of Modern Iran
- Lebanon: Focal Point in Crisis
- Ethics, Religion and International Politics
- Islamic Civilization in the Middle East

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Comparative Politics of the Middle East
- Introduction to International Studies
- Political Economy of Developing Nations
- World Politics
- U.S. & Latin American Relations
- American Foreign Policy
- International Economic Relations
- Peace or War: U.S. & the Third World
- Globalization
- Russian, Eurasia and the World
- Causes of International Peace and War
- Global Ethnic Conflict
- International Conflict Management

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Intern, United States State Department

June – August 2001

- Description: Worked as an intern in the political/economic section of the U.S. Embassy in Manama, Bahrain performing duties of a Foreign Service Officer. Attended weekly Country Team meetings chaired by the Ambassador.
- Skills: International politics, cross-cultural communication, organizational skills.
- Time Commitment: 40+ hours a week.

Activity 2: Intern, Euro Information Center

June – August 1999

- Description: Interned at the Euro Information Center in Trier, Germany learning about the coordinating activities of various components of the European Union. Learned about the different steps taken and future plans to integrate the European states. Additionally, performed various administrative tasks for the office.
- Skills: Deepened awareness of different cultures and raised awareness of European political issues.
- Time Commitment: 40+ hours a week.

Activity 3: Member, Model United Nations

November 2001

- Description: Served as a member of the Boston College Model United Nations team in a mock UN delegate conference in New York. Represented the country of Benin in the mock general assembly.
- Skills: Debating skills, public speaking, research.
- Time Commitment: 5-40 hours a week, plus 4 days at the conference.

Service Project: AHANA Tutoring program

September 2001 – December 2001

- Description: Volunteered as a tutor in the AHANA tutoring program at Boston College. Worked with an AHANA student on Political Science. Helped the student review for papers and tests, as well as give the student a sense of accomplishment and academic self worth.
- Skills: Teaching, proof reading.
- Time Commitment: 5 hours a week.

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College