

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Timur Pakay

I. International Experience

Paris Critical Studies Program, Université de Paris-Paris III, Paris France, Spring Semester 2001

- Attended 5 courses for 15 college credits.
- Took courses in French Cinema, Art and Literature all taught in French.

II. Academic Component

Language: French

- 5 college courses in French, and 5 courses in French in France

Humanities Courses:

- Middle East in the 20th Century
- Christianity in Africa
- Literature and Culture of the French Revolution
- Masterpieces of French Literature

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Sociology of the Third World
- Global Sociology

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Member, Muslim Student Organization

September 1999 – May 2000

- Description: Learned more about the Islamic faith through the lens of Western Culture. Attended a lecture series on the faith and the external interpretations of the faith. Attended and observed Friday prayers.
- Skills: Learned about the perceptions of the Islamic world from a Christian perspective.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours a week.

Activity 2: Member, Model UN

October 1999 – March 2000

- Description: Worked with a team to formulate and articulate opinions on political and cultural affairs of the world. Through research became aware of current events and situations in Third World countries.
- Skills: Speech, debating skills, formulation of ideas and teamwork.
- Time Commitment: 1 hour a week for 5 weeks a semester.

Activity 3: Co-President, French Club

May 1999 – May 2002

- Description: Taught students about the culture of France by showing French films, dining at French restaurants and by sponsoring French cultural events or trips to French activities in the Boston area. Led meetings of the club, set up agendas and steered members to accomplish the mission of the organization.
- Skills: Leadership, French speaking, reading and writing, organization.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours a week.

Service Project: Volunteer, Circle K

September 2001 – May 2002

- Description: Volunteered at a nursing home working with elderly people of many different ethnic and religious backgrounds.
- Skills: Learned to help others, developed my people skills, and opened up communication with elderly by providing them with a strong friendship.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours a week.

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College