

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Carolyn Kozlak

I. International Experience

Campus Ministry Immersion Trip; Jamaica

March 2004

- Led a 10 day immersion trip, organized fundraising efforts, planned retreats and educational activities

Kent State University Program; Geneva, Switzerland

January-May 2003

- Attended 5 college courses for 15 credits
- Studied human rights, international organizations, economic integration and international trade
- Internship at the Defense for Children International
- Weeklong trip to the International Court of Justice in Den Hague; observed Milosevic on trial
- Visited NATO, the EU Parliament, and the Council of Europe

CRISPAZ Summer Immersion Program; El Salvador

June-August 2002

- Lived with a family in the rural community Aqua Escondida, worked with the local kindergarten and youth group

Campus Ministry Immersion Trip; El Salvador

March 2001

- 10 day immersion trip to examine past and present social, political, economic, and spiritual conditions

II. Academic Component

Languages: French, Spanish & Italian

- 4 college courses

Humanities Courses:

- Literature and Society
- Ethics, Religion, and International Politics
- Liberation Ethics

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Introduction to International Studies
- Politics in Latin America
- Globalization
- Developing Countries in a Global Economy
- U. S. Foreign Relations 1945-present
- International Economic Relations
- International Trade Law
- International Studies Seminar

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Council Member, Pedro Arrupe Immersion Program

September 2002-May 2004

- Description: Fostered solidarity on the Boston College campus among students who have gone on international immersion trips. Organized meetings and activities. Worked to develop an economic cooperative committee.
- Skills: Utilized communication skills and improved public speaking skills. Developed event planning skills.
- Time Commitment: 3 hours per week for 45 weeks

Activity 2: Summer Associate, Global Policy Forum; New York, NY

May-August 2003

- Description: Developed a Social Economic Portfolio which included subjects: Bretton Woods Institutions, international trade, financing for development, debt, AIDS, hunger, poverty and development. Regularly attended Security Council meetings at the United Nations as a Non-Government Organization (NGO) observer.
- Skills: Utilized advanced computer skills. Honed writing style and enhanced research skills.
- Time Commitment: 42 hours per week for 12 weeks

Activity 3: Volunteer, Lokitaung Mission; Turkana, Kenya

July 2001

- Description: Assisted in various community works in this semi-desert district inhabited by nomadic people. Time was devoted to practical tasks and taught children.
- Skills: Demonstrated a positive attitude toward development as well as practical concern for individuals. Worked cooperatively as part of a team of students. Practiced flexibility to take on unexpected tasks.
- Time Commitment: 1 month

Service Project: PULSE Volunteer, Sociedad Latina

October 2001-May 2002

- Description: Tutored and mentored Latino junior high and high school students in metro-Boston.
- Skills: Developed tutoring and mentoring skills. Relied on Spanish language skills. Practiced cross-cultural communication.
- Time Commitment: 10 hours per week for 30 weeks

---

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

---

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College