

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Nicole Prairie

I. International Experience

Universidad Complutense; Madrid, Spain

September-January 2002

- Attended 5 college courses for 15 credits
- Lived in Valladolid, Spain for the first month of the program. Lived with host family in Madrid for the duration of the program. Traveled extensively throughout Spain.

II. Academic Component

Language: Spanish

- 13 courses

Humanities Courses:

- Liberation
- Liberation Ethics
- Chinese Classical Philosophy
- Hispanic Women Writers
- Aesthetics and Politics of Anti-Slavery Literature of Cuba
- épocas II: Golden-Age Spain, New World and Old

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Global Sociology
- Perspectives: War, Aggression, and Conflict Resolution

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Co-Director, AIDS Awareness Committee

September 2000-May 2004

- Description: Raised awareness of the global AIDS epidemic on the Boston College campus. Planned activities that served people suffering with HIV/AIDS in Boston.
- Skills: Demonstrated strong leadership skills. Exhibited empathy, understanding, and patience. Utilized organizational skills. Practiced communication and management skills.
- Time Commitment: 10 hours per week for 4 years

Activity 2: Intern, AIDS Action Committee

January-May 2003

- Description: Worked closely with the staff member responsible for the annual AIDS Ride event. Activities included: mailing flyers, recruiting riders, and securing advertising space. Funds raised from the ride went to education, prevention, and treatment in diverse communities in Massachusetts.
- Skills: Utilized advanced computer skills. Relied on strong communication skills.
- Time Commitment: 4-5 hours per week for 15 weeks

Activity 3: Research Assistant, Spanish Language and Literature Professor

January-May 2003

- Description: Researched graphic and bibliographic resources and materials related to Pre-Colombian art and culture. Developed a webpage in order to display the gathered information.
- Skills: Honed expert computer skills. Practiced research skills.
- Time Commitment: 8 hours per week for 15 weeks

Service Project: Tutor, Kids on Campus

January 2001-May 2004

- Description: Tutored and mentored one student in various subjects. All students in the program live and attend school in inner city Boston neighborhoods.
- Skills: Practiced empathy and patience. Utilized active listening skills.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week for 3 ½ years

---

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

---

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College