

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Carla Breton

I. International Experience

Immersion Program; Dominican Republic

June 2003

- Traveled with a group of students to the Dominican Republic
- Volunteered at a summer camp
- Taught English, math, and reading at a Fe y Alegria School for 2 weeks

II. Academic Component

Language: Spanish and French

- 5 courses in Spanish
- 5 courses in French

Humanities Courses:

- Literature and Society
- Challenge of Justice
- Colonial Latin America
- Modern Latin America
- Latin American Perspectives on Civilization and Culture
- Topics in French Culture and Civilization
- Introduction to Narrative Forms
- Spanish-American Short Story

Humanities Courses continued:

- The Hero's Other Half
- Foreign Language Pedagogy
- Contemporary Spanish Theater
- History of Civil Rights and Women's Liberation

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Inequality in America
- U.S.–Latin American Relations

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: International Assistant, Office of International Students and Scholars

August 2004-May 2005

- Description: Served as a peer contact/orientation leader for incoming international students. Helped students acclimate to the college climate as well as the greater Boston area.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and knowledge of Boston College and surrounding community. Demonstrated leadership skills.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week for 1 year; 7-day intensive training/orientation each year

Activity 2: Founding Member and Dancer, Fuego del Corazón

October 2003-May 2005

- Description: Founded Fuego del Corazón, a Latin dance team at Boston College. Performed at various events at Boston College and the surrounding community.
- Skills: Demonstrated strong teamwork and dancing skills.
- Time Commitment: 6 hours per week for 2 years

Activity 3: Vice President, Organization of Latin American Affairs (OLAA)

September 2001-May 2005

- Description: Served as the Vice President for OLAA, a student organization that believes and works towards empowering and affirming Latinos at Boston College and the larger community. OLAA fights for the political, social, educational, economic, intellectual, and spiritual advancement of the Latino population. Organized lectures, events, and several other activities to work towards this goal.
- Skills: Developed public speaking and meeting facilitation skills. Improved administration and budgeting skills.
- Time Commitment: 20 hours per week for 4 years

Service Project: Volunteer, Talented and Gifted Program at UMass Boston

September-December 2004

- Description: Volunteered with the TAG program to tutor recent immigrants from the Dominican Republic. Tutored students in English, math, and science.
- Skills: Utilized strong cross-cultural communication skills and proficiency in English and Spanish. Developed tutoring skills in the various subjects.
- Time Commitment: 4 hours per week for 15 weeks

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College