

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Jessica Wuebker

I. International Experience

Oxford University; Oxford, England

September 2003-June 2004

- Participated in 4 college courses for 30 credits
- Participated in intramural rugby and cricket teams

II. Academic Component

Language: German, Italian, & Swedish

- 5 college courses in German
- 2 college courses in Italian
- 1 college course in Swedish

Humanities Courses:

- Shooting Nazis: German Film from 1933-1945
- The Holocaust: A Moral History
- Hitler: In Search of His Evil
- Music and Word: The German Musical Heritage
- History of German Literature

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Political Sociology
- General Linguistics

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: International Outreach Volunteer, Student Admissions Program

September 2004-May 2005

- Description: Volunteered for the International Outreach Program in the Student Admissions Program at Boston College. Contacted prospective and admitted international students to encourage them to apply to Boston College. Answered inquiries about Boston College, Boston, and the experience of studying in a foreign country.
- Skills: Utilized interpersonal cross-cultural competency skills and writing skills.
- Time Commitment: 1 hour per month for 30 weeks

Activity 2: Research Assistant, Philosophy Department

June-August 2003; September-December 2004

- Description: Assisted James Bernauer, S.J.; a philosophy professor; with translation and summaries of German texts regarding religion and the Holocaust.
- Skills: Utilized strong German language skills and organizational skills.
- Time Commitment: 10-35 hours per week for 20 weeks

Activity 3: Team Member, Pembroke College Women's Rugby Club; Oxford, UK

October 2003-June 2004

- Description: Participated in this intramural rugby team, the first women's rugby team to exist at Pembroke College, Oxford.
- Skills: Utilized teamwork and cross-cultural communication skills. Developed physical skills.
- Time Commitment: 5 hours per week for 25 weeks

Service Project: Volunteer, Boston College Neighborhood Center

September-December 2004

- Description: Taught adult ESL classes once a week to a class of 5-10 students. Designed lesson plans for multi-level students from diverse language backgrounds.
- Skills: Utilized creativity, patience, teamwork, and cross-cultural and non-verbal communication skills.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week for 10 weeks

---

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

---

John Neuhauser,
Academic Vice President
Boston College