

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Damian Park

I. International Experience

Universidad Autónoma de Madrid, Madrid, Spain

January 2005 – May 2005

- Attended 5 college courses taught in Spanish
- Traveled extensively throughout Europe
- Worked as a reader in an interpreter's class

II. Academic Component

Majors: Marketing & Finance

Minor: International Studies

Languages: Spanish, Korean, French, Portuguese

- Fluent in Spanish & Korean
- Proficient in French and Portuguese
- 4 college courses in Spanish

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Globalization
- Intercultural Communication
- International Marketing
- International Finance
- International Institutions

Humanities Courses:

- Modern History I & II: Europe and the Americas
- Modern Architecture

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: International Business Academy, Boston College

September 2003- May 2005

- Description: Elected as Secretary after serving one year as Freshman Representative; Coordinated daily activities of the club; Organized events on campus in order to raise awareness of the subject; Initiated connections with other cultural clubs on campus to co-sponsor events.
- Skills: Improved intercultural communication skills and public speaking skills through addressing club members at meetings and events, improved operational skills by managing the organization and overall health of the club.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week

Activity 2: International Business Academy, Boston College

September 2005- May 2006

- Description: Elected as Co-President; Coordinated the daily activities of the club; Organized events on campus in order to raise awareness of the subject; Initiated connections with other cultural clubs on campus to co-sponsor events; Helped arrange the visit of the ex-president of Venezuela Carlos Andres Perez to campus; Gave the club a new direction by addressing other non-business related issues.
- Skills: Improved intercultural communication skills and public speaking skills through addressing club members at meetings and events; developed advanced leadership skills by serving as a member of the executive board for 4 years, improved operational skills by managing the organization and overall health of the club.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week for 4 years

Activity 3: International and Intercultural Lectures

January 2006 – May 2006

- Description: Attended five lectures on various international and intercultural topics. Lectures attended were: Young Global Leader Summit on the International Criminal Court at Yale University; A panel discussion of four prominent national security speakers about the future of global justice and the role of the U.S.; A showing of "Seoul Train", a documentary about the life of North Korean expatriates trying to escape the regime in their country; A lecture series on the importance of intercultural communication in business and its direction in the future; Observed various international marketing student presentations describing market entry plans for various countries.
- Skills: Enhanced listening skills and deepened understanding and appreciation of various issues presented.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours weekly for 5 weeks

Service Project: Appalachia Volunteers, Rural Retreat, VA

February 2004 - March 2004

- Description: Traveled with a team of fellow students for an immersed service trip; Painted a high school gym and assisted a third grade teacher in a diverse elementary school; Worked at the schools and lived in the same house with fellow students for an entire week.
- Skills: Developed fellowship with other BC students and was humbled after seeing the living conditions in Virginia's Appalachians, gained greater understanding of the educational system in the United States.
- Time Commitment: 168 hours for 1 week

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Academic Vice President
Boston College