

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Daniel Trovato

I. International Experience

John Cabot University, Rome, Italy

September 2004 – December 2004

- Attended 5 college courses taught in Italian and English
- Traveled extensively throughout Italy and Europe
- Lived in an apartment with Italians

II. Academic Component

Majors: International Studies, Political Science

Languages: Italian and Spanish

- Proficient in Italian
- 5 years of high school Spanish

Humanities Courses:

- Ethics, Religion, and International Politics
- The Religious Quest I & II
- L'identità degli Italiani
- L'amore Impossibile
- Literatures of the World

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Comparative Business Cultures
- Globalization and the Media
- Advanced Intercultural Communication
- Comparative Social Movements
- Introduction to International Studies
- Senior Seminar: International Studies
- Geoscience and Public Policy

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Study Abroad Advisor, Center for International Partnerships and Programs

January 2005- May 2006

- Description: Managed student study abroad alumni volunteers; Prepared student applications for international study; Advised students with studying abroad and with the materials of Center's resource room.
- Skills: Utilized human resource management skills in a multi-cultural environment, demonstrated strong supervisory and organizational skills and a working knowledge of Boston College's international programs.
- Time Commitment: 10 hours per week

Activity 2: Member, Boston College Urban Project

January 2005-May 2006

- Description: Participated in a weekly seminar group discussing urban issues, including: combating global urban homelessness through international street newspapers, urban planning, and race relations in urban contexts.
- Skills: Developed strong communication skills regarding social issues in urban contexts.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week

Activity 3: International Assistant, Office of International Students and Scholars

April 2005-May 2006

- Description: Served as a peer contact/orientation leader for incoming international students; Helped students acclimate to the college climate as well as the greater Boston area.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and knowledge of Boston College and surrounding community, demonstrated leadership, planning, organizational, programming, and evaluative skills.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week; 7-day intensive training/orientation

Service Project: Volunteer, Boston College Appalachia Program

January 2005-March 2005

- Description: Managed student volunteers participating in a habitat for humanity program and constructed framing for 4 houses in the diverse community of Phenix City, Alabama; Trained for two months in the economic factors for poverty in the Appalachian regions: the relocation of capital out of coal power and the immobility of labor.
- Skills: Utilized leadership skills and working knowledge of the effects of the structural causes of poverty.
- Time Commitment: 60 hours per week for 1 week, weekly training prior to trip

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Academic Vice President
Boston College