

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Erin Carreiro

I. International Experience

Advanced Studies in England, Bath, England

June 2005- July 2005

- Attended 2 college courses towards English major
- Traveled extensively throughout England

II. Academic Component

Majors: English and Mathematics

Languages: Spanish

- Proficient in Spanish
- 5 college courses in Spanish

Humanities Courses:

- Age of Rembrandt
- America's War in Vietnam

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Family, School, and Society
- Peace or War: United States/Third World

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Office Assistant, Office of International Students and Scholars

September 2002- May 2006

- Description: Part-time position primarily assisting with administrative work. First point of contact for all office inquiries.
- Skills: Strengthened communication skills with international students; Developed computer skills including familiarity with the SEVIS database for international students; Acquired knowledge of immigration issues and processes.
- Time Commitment: 6-11 hours per week for 4 years

Activity 2: Student, International Studies Abroad, San José, Costa Rica

July 2004

- Description: Summer study abroad program. Lived with a host family. Attended one college course: Advanced Spanish I. Traveled extensively throughout Costa Rica.
- Skills: Experienced Costa Rican culture. Increased Spanish comprehension and speaking skills. Interacted with host family and other study abroad students.
- Time Commitment: Total immersion for 4 weeks

Activity 3: Resident, Romance Language Floor, Vouté Hall, Boston College

September 2005- May 2006

- Description: Resident on the Romance Language Floor.
- Skills: Developed interpersonal skills with fellow residents; Constant exposure to other languages and cultural events and activities.
- Time Commitment: 8 months

Service Project: Trip leader (2006); Club member (2005), Appalachia Volunteers

September 2004- May 2006

- Description: Attended weekly meetings in preparation for trip during Spring Break; Participated in days of service in Boston; Fundraised for trip; As a trip leader, attended trip leader retreat. During Spring Break traveled to and did Habitat for Humanity in Norristown, PA (2006) and Eastman, GA (2005).
- Skills: Improved leadership and organization skills as a trip leader; Developed empathy and compassion for other people; Gained construction skills through physical volunteer work.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours of planning per week for a semester, one full week during Spring Break (Trip leader, 2006); One hour of planning per week for a semester, one full week during Spring Break (Club member, 2005).

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Academic Vice President
Boston College