

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Jamie Anderson

I. International Experience

University of Cape Town, Cape Town, South Africa

February 2005 – June 2005

- Attended 3 courses on southern Africa and development
- Traveled throughout southern Africa, including Zambia, Zimbabwe, Mozambique

II. Academic Component

Major: International Studies

Languages: French and Spanish

- Proficient in French – 3 years
- Elementary Spanish

Humanities Courses:

- Ethics, Religion, and International Studies
- Liberation of Southern Africa
- Modern History II: Globalization
- Aspects of Art

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Introduction to International Studies
- International Studies Seminar
- American Foreign Policy
- Policy and Politics of Central Eurasia
- Poverty, Development and Globalization

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: World Affairs Program Intern, WorldBoston

October 2004 – December, 2004

- Description: Planned a lecture series focusing on international relations and events, including hosting events with Ambassadors from France, Turkey, Cyprus, and Germany to the United States.
- Skills: Events planning, communications, and customer service
- Time Commitment: Three months, ten hours per week

Activity 2: Summer Intern, U.S. Department of State Internship

June 2005 – August 2005

- Description: Selected as Summer Intern with Paula J. Dobriansky, Under Secretary for Democracy and Global Affairs. Worked on Iraqi women's issues, including following women's rights within the constitution and organizing a conference with Iraq's Minister of State for Women's Affairs. Advocated for trafficking-in-persons by helping to organize inter-agency meetings on recommendations for reassessments and sanctions to countries with poor trafficking-in-persons policies.
- Skills: Research and writing on issues including international women's issues and trafficking-in-persons
- Time Commitment: Ten weeks, full-time

Activity 3: Events Intern, ACCION International Internship

February 2006- May 2006

- Description: Assisted in planning annual fundraiser for ACCION International, a leading microfinance organization, partnering with over 30 organizations and banks in 22 countries in Latin America, Africa, and India. Also assisted in planning conferences on microfinance.
- Skills: Events planning, communications, organizational development
- Time Commitment: 10-15 hours per week

Service Project: Dominican Republic Service/Immersion Trip, Boston College

March 2006

- Description: Spent a week in the Santo Domingo area visiting public schools and an orphanage to provide them with school supplies and other donations and spent time teaching lessons and organizing physical activities.
- Skills: Practicing Spanish, learning Dominican culture and education system, teaching, fundraising and collecting donations
- Time Commitment: Spring Break 2006, three months of prior organizing and fundraising

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Academic Vice President
Boston College