

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Nicole Iannuzzi

I. International Experience

L'Università di Parma, Parma, Italy

January 2005- June 2005

- Attended 5 college courses taught in Italian
- Translated a brochure for L'Università di Parma
- Lived with host family

II. Academic Component

Major: Political Science

Minors: Italian & Faith, Peace & Justice

Languages: Italian

- Fluent in Italian
- 8 college courses in Italian

Humanities Courses:

- History & Development of Racism in the US
- Challenge of Justice
- Italian Mysteries
- Mystery of the Mafia: Fiction & Film

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Intelligence and International Security
- Comparative Politics of Democratization
- Religion in a Global Context
- Studies: Crime & Social Justice

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Staff, Boston College Dance Marathon

September 2002- March 2003

- Description: Served as assistant to the Operations Director of Boston College's 1st Annual Dance Marathon; Money raised went to Boona Bona, an orphanage in Tanzania.
- Skills: Deepened awareness of the international need for proactive service, improved event planning and supervisory skills.
- Time Commitment: 6 - 8 hours per week for 6 months

Activity 2: Member, Il Circolo Italiano, Boston College

October 2002- May 2006

- Description: Participated in various service and cultural activities in order to better understand the history and traditions of the Italian people and to serve the Italian community in Boston.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication and foreign language skills, developed a deeper understanding and appreciation for Italian culture.
- Time Commitment: 1 - 2 hours per week

Activity 3: Intern, STRIVE/New Haven, New Haven, CT

July 2005- August 2005

- Description: Interned for a non-profit workforce development agency which assists those who are chronically unemployed or underemployed often due to socio-economic conditions.
- Skills: Improved organizing, advocacy, and communication skills, demonstrated empathy and compassion.
- Time Commitment: 20 hours per week for 8 weeks

Service Project: Volunteer, Navajo Nation Service/Immersion Trip, Albuquerque, NM

January 2004

- Description: Participated in weekly group meetings to prepare for the trip and learn about pertinent social and cultural topics; Traveled on a 10 day trip with other BC students to the Navajo Reservation to aid elderly residents to winterize their homes and serve the community; Learned about Navajo culture and history.
- Skills: Developed better understanding of socio-economic conditions on Native American Reservations, strengthened cross-cultural communication skills.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week for 20 weeks; 10 day service/immersion trip

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Academic Vice President
Boston College