

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Prabhdeep Singh

I. International Experience

Universidade Catolica Portuguesa, Portugal

Summer 2003

- Attended the XI International Annual Meeting in Political Studies in Cascais, Portugal focusing on "New Challenges to Liberal Democracy in a Global World"
- Took courses and attended seminars at the Universidade Catolica Portuguesa in International Politics & Theory as well as Portuguese

II. Academic Component Majors: Political Science, Philosophy Minor: International Studies

Languages: Punjabi

- Proficient in Punjabi

Humanities Courses:

- U.S. Foreign Policy II
- Seminar: Perspectives on War, Aggression and Conflict Resolution
- Culture Through Film
- Eyes on the Prize: Black Rights

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Introduction to Chinese Foreign Policy
- Introduction to International Studies
- Reform, Revolution, and the Communist Collapse
- Post Communist Transitions
- Introduction to Anthropology
- Introduction to African-American Society

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Director of International Issues (2003-04); Chief of Multicultural Affairs (2004-05), Undergraduate Government of Boston College

August 2003- May 2005

- Description: Served as the Chief of Multicultural Affairs for the Undergraduate Government of Boston College: Acted as the liaison and improved dialogue between various cultural groups and the student government as well as the study body through various activities and events including panel debates/discussions dealing with the reality of race relations at BC as well as controversial topics like Affirmative Actions; Aligned with many advocacy groups to include South Asian and Middle Eastern students into the institutional framework of the school.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and knowledge of Boston College and surrounding community, demonstrated leadership, planning, organizational, programming, and evaluative skills.
- Time Commitment: 5-8 hours per week for the academic year.

Activity 2: International Assistant, Office of International Students and Scholars

August 2003- May 2004

- Description: Served as a peer contact/orientation leader for incoming international students; Helped students acclimate to the college climate as well as the greater Boston area; Served as a member of the Steering Committee to select new participants in 2003 and 2004.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and knowledge of Boston College and surrounding community, demonstrated leadership, planning, organizational, programming, and evaluative skills.
- Time Commitment: 7-day intensive training/orientation & 3-4 hours per week.

Activity 3: The Foundation for the Defense of Democracies Fellowship

June 2004 – May 2005

- Took part in extensive graduate-level anti-terrorism seminar in Tel Aviv, Israel, designed and organized 6 events & media outreach events educating the Boston College and surrounding communities of the threat of terrorism to democratic societies, and participated in FDD anti-terrorism conference in Washington D.C.
- Skills: Improved grassroots organizing and advocacy skills, demonstrated strong leadership, organization, and fundraising skills.
- Time Commitment: Full time during summer and 1-2 hours per week for academic year.

Service Project: Volunteer/Organizer, Sikh Youth Federation of North America

September 2001-September 2004

- Description: Served as a camp counselor and community volunteer for the Sikh Youth Federation of North America for 3 summers; Acted as camp counselor/organizer for Sikh youth summer camp in upstate NY; Performed various community service activities throughout this time.
- Skills: Improved teaching, mentoring, and tutoring skills, and grass roots and advocacy skills, developed practical physical skills.
- Time Commitment: Full time during summers.

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Academic Vice President
Boston College