

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Aleksandra Lada

I. International Experience

Escuela Internacional, Salamanca, Spain

July, 2004

- Lived with host family and took 3 Spanish courses

Gregorian University, Rome, Italy

June, 2005 – August, 2005

- Took courses in Contemporary Catholic Ethics and Italian

Immersion Trip to Northern India

January, 2006

- Traveled extensively throughout Northern India and lived with host families in Delhi and Jaipur

Jagiellonian University, Cracow, Poland

January, 2006 – June, 2006

- Took 6 courses, 2 taught in Polish

II. Academic Component

Major: International Studies

Minor: Theology

Languages: French, Spanish, and Italian

- Advanced Placement Language Proficiency Coursework
- 3 college courses in Spanish
- 3 college courses in Italian

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Introduction to International Studies
- Post-Communist Traditions
- Reform, Revolution, Communist Collapse
- Poland and the European Union
- 20th Century Central & Eastern Europe
- U.S. Foreign Policy/1945-Present

Humanities Courses:

- Ethics, Religion, and International Studies
- Modern History II (Latin America focus)
- Sociology of Migration
- Polish & Eastern European Literature

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: International Assistant, Office of International Students and Scholars

August, 2004 – May, 2007

- Description: Facilitated the adjustment of new and exchange international students to Boston College, Boston and American life by organizing events and mentoring students.
- Skills: Cross-cultural communication, organizational and leadership skills, role modeling.
- Time Commitment: 5 hours per week

Activity 2: Intern, American Chamber of Commerce

June- August, 2004; June-August, 2005

- Description: Worked with the American Chamber of Commerce on corporate, legal and cultural programming between the U.S. corporations and Polish government. Learned about Poland's transition in the EU as well as assisted the editor for the monthly publication, American Investor
- Skills: Delegation, research, communication with Polish political leaders, editing.
- Time Commitment: 40 hours per week

Activity 3: Undergraduate Government of Boston College

September, 2003- June, 2004

- Description: Served as a member of UGBC's Student Life committee and as Director of International Issues. Organized lectures, an International Film Festival, an International Banquet/Concert, and wrote for the UGBC Newsletter.
- Skills: Awareness of current political issues, public relations, coordination, public speaking.
- Time Commitment: 7 hours per week, plus 1 week training

Service Project: Volunteer and Project Coordinator, UNICEF Polish National Committee

August 2005

- Description: Project Manager for the Convention on Children's Rights, helped with production of educational CD and assisted children in northern Poland by fundraising and site visits.
- Skills: Creativity, interpersonal skills, planning and implementing projects with other UNICEF volunteers, translating from English and French to Polish.
- Time Commitment: 35 hours per week

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College