

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Amanda Watral

I. International Experience

Universität Heidelberg, Heidelberg, Germany

March, 2006- July, 2006

- Attended 5 college courses taught in German
- Traveled extensively throughout Germany and France
- Played Softball for a local German Community Team

II. Academic Component

Majors: German; Linguistics

Languages: German, Korean

- 10 college classes taken in German
- 2 college course in Korean
- 1 college course in Modern Russian

- King Arthur in German Literature
- Advanced Reading in German

Humanities Courses:

- Language and Society
- History of European Film

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Victimology
- The Sociology of Revolutions

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Stammtisch, Boston College

September, 2006 – May, 2007

- Description: Member of German Language Club run by students and designed to give students of all levels the chance to build their language skills, meet other German speaking students and meet the German Exchange students currently attending Boston College
- Skills: Deepened knowledge of German culture, society and politics, strengthened language skills
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week

Activity 2: Intercultural Luncheon Program, Boston College

September, 2006 – May, 2007

- Description: Run by the Graduate Students in the Slavic and Eastern Languages Department, students meet each week to discuss and share cultural experiences while enjoying cuisine from another country
- Skills: Gained knowledge of other languages, cultures and countries.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week

Activity 3: Appalachia Service Program, Boston College

Summer 2005

- Description: Spent one week in Cat's Bridge, a poor, mostly minority town in Virginia. Tasks included assisting residents with everyday chores, clearing lots for construction, helping run a Summer School and building houses with Habitat for Humanity
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and demonstrated leadership, planning, organizational, programming skills.
- Time Commitment: 1 week trip, 2-3 hours per week of fundraising and meeting for 3 months prior

Service Project: Volunteer, REACH, Waltham, MA

October, 2004- April, 2005

- Description: Served at shelter for victims of domestic violence, answered hotline and assisted a diverse population of residents with tasks designed to help them in starting a new life
- Skills: Developed listening skills, knowledge of court system, knowledge of Domestic Violence Laws, multicultural sensitivity and skills in order to tend to diverse clients
- Time Commitment: 10 hours per week

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College