

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Atlas Anagnos

I. International Experience

Katholische Universität Eichstätt

October, 2005 - July, 2006

- Attended 2 intensive language courses at the Goethe Institute in Munich
- Attended 9 classes taught in German

II. Academic Component

Majors: International Studies; German Studies

Languages: German & French

- Advanced Placement Language Proficiency Coursework
- 2 college course in German
- 2 college courses in French

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Introduction to International Studies
- Rise and Rule of the Islamic States

Humanities Courses:

- Language and Ethnicity
- Literature and Culture Francophone
- Ethics, Religion, and International Politics

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: German Club Stammtisch, Boston College

September, 2003 - May, 2007

- Description: Participated in weekly meetings with other students interested in German language and culture as well as with German exchange students to discuss current events of international interest, German and American culture, and to practice language skills.
- Skills: Increased German language skills, practiced intercultural communication on a personal scale, and deepened understanding of matters of intercultural and international concern.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week

Activity 3: Presidential Scholars Program, Boston College

September, 2003 - May, 2007

- Description: Participated in a scholarship program in which part of the scholarship included attendance to speeches and events as well as participation and volunteering in programs of an international nature.
- Skills: Deepened understanding of intercultural relations and of current events of international concern, as well as developed leadership skills.
- Time Commitment: 4 years

Activity 2: Bellagio Forum for Sustainable Development, Osnabrück, Germany

February, 2006 - April, 2006

- Description: Worked as an intern for an organization dedicated to international economic and environmental sustainability, helped facilitate meetings between international organizations in order to further international cooperation towards a goal of sustainability.
- Skills: Research, writing and editing, gained a deep appreciation for the environment.
- Time Commitment: 40 hours per week

Service Project: ESL Teacher, Suffolk County House of Correction

June, 2004 - July, 2004

- Description: Taught English as a Second Language to a group of Vietnamese inmates in a minimum security prison.
- Skills: Developed leadership and teaching skills as well as intercultural communication skills.
- Time Commitment: 12 hours per week

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College