

Official Transcript

Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Jessica LoBoen

I. International Experience

La Universidad de Complutense, Madrid, Spain

January, 2006 – June, 2006

- Attended 5 college courses taught in Spanish
- Traveled extensively throughout Spain and Europe
- Lived with host family
- Tutored English to youth
- Participated in a cultural exchange program with Spanish students

II. Academic Component

Major: Economics

Minor: History

Languages: Spanish

- 7 courses in Spanish

Humanities Courses:

- Culture and Civilization of Spain
- Religion and Sexuality in Europe
- World Cinema
- Cultural Studies

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Spain and the European Union
- Urban Economics
- Children of Color
- Social Justice in Meso America

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Organization of Latin American Affairs, Boston College

September, 2003-May, 2007

- Description: Elected as the Junior Class Representative and General Meetings Coordinator in 2005-2006; Director of Public Relations in 2006-2007. Increased awareness of Latin American issues and culture at Boston College and other local universities through general meetings, events and discussion.
- Skills: Deepened appreciation for the promotion of the Latino culture. Demonstrated strong organizational skills.
- Time Commitment: 4-7 hours per week

Activity 2: Amnesty International, Boston College

September, 2006-May, 2007

- Description: Elected as Assistant to Urgent Action. Brought awareness to Boston College and the greater Boston area about prisoners of conscious and international injustices.
- Skills: Leadership, communication, organization, and advocacy skills utilized
- Time Commitment: 2-4 hours per week

Activity 3: Danger Latin Dance Troop, Boston College

September, 2003-May, 2005

- Description: Served as group manager for the team in 2004-2005. Latin-based dance styles and techniques.
- Skills: Responsible for organizing all performances on and off campus, as well as maintaining relationships with all Latino organizations. Utilized cross-cultural communication and choreography skills.
- Time Commitment: 8-12 hours per week

Service Project: Allston/ Brighton Community Development Corporation

September, 2006-May, 2007

- Description: Organized home ownership classes for Latinos in the area.
- Skills: Formed a supportive and educative network for first time homebuyers in the Allston/Brighton area through communication and organizational skills.
- Time Commitment: 5 hours per week

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College