

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Saheba Sahni

I. International Experience

Service and Immersion Program, Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic

March, 2007

- Studied the range of schools in the Dominican education system.
- Volunteered and taught at various public and private schools.
- Volunteered at Villa Benediccion, an orphanage in Santo Domingo.

II. Academic Component

Major: International Studies

Minor: Theology

Languages: Arabic

- 3 college courses in Arabic

Humanities Courses:

- Religion and Politics in 20th Century India
- Faith Elements in Conflicts
- Asia in the World
- Hitler, Churches and the Holocaust
- Israelis and Palestinians: Two People, Three Faiths
- Prophets and Peacemakers

- Ethics, Religion and International Politics

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Introduction to International Studies
- International Studies Senior Seminar
- The Rise and Rule of Islamic States
- Introduction to Anthropology
- Global Sociology
- International Studies Senior Thesis

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: International Assistant, Office of International Students and Scholars

August, 2004 – May, 2007

- Description: Served as a peer contact and orientation leader for incoming international students. Helped students acclimate to the college climate as well as the greater Boston area. Served as a member of the Steering Committee to interview and select new participants in 2005, 2006 and 2007. Coordinated all aspects of the International Student Orientation and International Assistant Workshop in summer 2005.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and knowledge of Boston College and surrounding community. Demonstrated leadership, planning, organizational, programming, and evaluative skills.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week; 7-day intensive training and orientation each year

Activity 2: South Asian Student Association, Boston College

September, 2004 – May, 2005

- Description: Elected as Culture Show Coordinator for 2004-2005. Organized cultural show with Boston College students and performers from Boston-area colleges. Managed budget and worked closely with SASA Board and university administrators. Increased awareness of South Asian issues and culture at Boston College.
- Skills: Demonstrated strong supervisory and organizational skills.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week

Activity 3: Asian Caucus, Boston College

September, 2003 – May, 2004

- Description: Selected as the Freshman Representative for 2003-2004. Acted as a liaison between the Asian Caucus Executive Board and the freshman class. Responsible for organizing various events to involve freshmen in the Asian community.
- Skills: Deepened appreciation for the inclusion of all cultures. Demonstrated strong leadership and organizational skills. Utilized cross-cultural communication skills.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week

Service Project: Volunteer, Mustard Seed Communities, Kingston, Jamaica

March, 2007

- Volunteered with a non-profit organization which provides for the development of physically and mentally disabled children from underprivileged backgrounds and works with children with HIV, as well as pregnant teenagers. Coordinated fundraising activities to raise money for the trip.
- Skills: Developed organizational, teamwork and fundraising skills.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week: 10 day trip

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College