

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Veronica D. Joseph

I. International Experience

Madrid, Spain

June, 2005 - July, 2005

- Attended a three week course on Spanish Art History
- Traveled extensively throughout Spain; lived with host family

Kingston, Jamaica

March, 2005

- Worked with mentally and physically disabled children and adults as well as children with AIDS

San Salvador, El Salvador

March, 2004

- Spent a week immersing in the Salvadorian culture and met with different political parties, exiled individuals as well as survivors of the war.
- Spent two nights in El Ocotillo, a rural village in Morazán, in the eastern highlands.

II. Academic Component      Major: Hispanic Studies      Minors: International Studies; History

Languages: Creole and Spanish

- 10 college courses in Spanish

Humanities Courses:

- Seminar: Ethics, Religion, and International Studies
- Peace or War
- World Politics: Conflict & Cooperation

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- Globalization
- US Foreign Policy I
- Modern History Globalization
- Russia, Eurasia and the World
- Afro-Latin America

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Vice Presidents' Student Advisory Board

September, 2006 – May, 2007

- Description: Work with the Vice Presidents of Boston College in order to address issues that concern the greater Boston College community. Help to bridge the gap between the administration of BC and the students by enhancing communication between the two entities and enhancing student life, and tending to multicultural issues at BC through such dialogue.
- Skills: Communication and planning.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per month

Activity 2: GLBT/Queer Leadership Council

September, 2005 – May, 2007

- Description: Elected as the AHANA Co-Representative in 2005-2006; President in 2006-2007. Increase awareness of GLBT issues on campus. Host educational programs for the GLBT community; facilitate dialogue on topics regarding the GLBT community.
- Skills: Demonstrated leadership, planning, communication, time management, organizational, and programming skills.
- Time Commitment: 10 hours per week

Activity 3: Co-Coordinator of Panel: "Implications of the word N-word As Used in Mass Media"

February 2006

- Description: Helped to bring renowned professors Randall Kennedy and Tricia Rose as well as well-known speaker Tim Rose to speak at Boston College over the use of the N-word in Mass Media in order to educate the BC community about the history of the term and start a dialogue over the meaning of the term as used today.
- Skills: Communication and coordination.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours biweekly

Service Project: Co-Leader, Service Trip, Ejisu, Ghana

July, 2006 – August, 2006

- Description: Helped raise over $20,000 to go to Ejisu, Ghana with other BC students to teach computer classes to middle school Ghanaian students.
- Skills: Demonstrated leadership, planning, communicational, time management, organizational, and programming skills.
- Time Commitment: 2 hours per week; 1 month trip

---

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

---

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College