

Official Transcript
Boston College's Global Proficiency Program

Victoria Diaz

I. International Experience

La Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile, Santiago, Chile

February, 2006 – July, 2006

- Attended 5 college courses taught in Spanish
- Traveled throughout Chile and Argentina
- Lived in a residence with other Chilean and South American students.

II. Academic Component

Major: Political Science

Languages: Spanish

- 5 college courses in Spanish

Humanities Courses:

- World Cinema
- Chilean Culture Seminar
- Twentieth Century History of Chile and Latin America

Social Science, Business, Education Courses:

- U.S – Latin American Relations
- Comparative Politics
- Politics and Society in Central Eurasia
- Globalization
- Seminar: Twentieth Century Latin America
- Geography of Latin America
- Twentieth Century Latin American Economic Problems

III. Co-curricular Activities

Activity 1: Tutor, Read Boston Program; Brighton, MA

October, 2003 - May, 2007

- Description: Served as reading tutor to special needs children, of diverse racial and ethnic backgrounds, ages 5-6 and first graders. Assist with evaluations of student reading and mathematical development.
- Skills: Improved patience, tolerance, and understanding. Strengthened communication skills in multicultural context.
- Time Commitment: 2 - 12 hours per week

Activity 2: ESL Teacher, Boston College Community Center; Brighton, MA

October, 2004 – December, 2005

- Description: Co-taught and independently taught two English as a Second Language classes.
- Skills: Utilized intercultural communication skills and knowledge of surrounding immigrant community. Demonstrated leadership, planning, organizational, programming, and evaluative skills.
- Time Commitment: 1-2 hours per week

Activity 3: ESL Teacher, Learning Education Center; Shanghai, China

June, 2004 – August, 2004

- Description: Responsible for teaching middle school and pre-school level English classes. Helped direct and facilitate promotional activities. Performed International English Language Tests research
- Skills: Deepened appreciation for the Chinese Culture. Utilized strong cross-cultural communication, leadership, and organizational skills.
- Time Commitment: 24 hours per week

Service Project: Honduras Education Leadership Project (H.E.L.P.)

Franciscan Friars of Renewal; Comayagua, Honduras

August, 2005 – January, 2006

- Description: Fundraised and developed programs to assist the people of Comayagua. Participated in various community projects throughout Comayagua such as digging latrines, delivering donations, cleaning houses, and creating Bible camp programs for children.
- Skills: Utilized Spanish and demonstrated creativity through developing camp programs for children.
- Time Commitment: 2 hrs per week; 10 day trip

---

Cheryl Presley,
Vice President for Student Affairs
Boston College

---

Cutberto Garza,
Provost and Dean of Faculties
Boston College