Policy for Returning Submitted Aid Application Documents

It is imperative that you retain copies of all documents you submit to Boston College to complete your Student Aid Application. All aid application forms, correspondence, and supporting documents including federal tax returns become the property of Boston College once submitted to the Boston College Financial Aid Processing Center. The Office of Student Services at Boston College is committed to being a paperless environment. All submitted materials are imaged, and the paper originals are destroyed within 30 days of receipt. Therefore, the College is unable to return original documents to students or their families.

You may check the status of your application online at <http://www.bc.edu/finaidapp/>. Students with a BC username and password can also check their status on Agora at <http://agora.bc.edu/>. If you have specific questions regarding the 2007-08 financial aid process, contact the Office of Student Services at 1-800-294-0294.

Please note that students must reapply for federal financial aid each year. Students must plan ahead and be prepared to pay for books and/or living expenses until the funds have been disbursed.

Notice of Nondiscrimination

Founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, Boston College is dedicated to intellectual excellence and to its Jesuit, Catholic heritage. Boston College recognizes the essential contribution a diverse community of students, faculty, and staff makes to the advancement of its goals and ideals in an atmosphere of respect for one another and for the University's mission and heritage. Accordingly, Boston College commits itself to maintaining a welcoming environment for all people and extends its welcome in particular to those who may be vulnerable to discrimination, on the basis of their race, ethnic or national origin, religion, color, age, gender, marital or parental status, veteran status, disabilities, or sexual orientation.

Boston College rejects and condemns all forms of harassment, wrongful discrimination, and disrespect. It has developed procedures to respond to incidents of harassment whatever the basis or circumstance. Moreover it is the policy of Boston College, while reserving its lawful rights where appropriate to take actions designed to promote the Jesuit, Catholic principles that sustain its mission and heritage, to comply with all state and federal laws prohibiting discrimination in employment and in its educational programs on the basis of a person's race, religion, color, national origin, age, sex, marital or parental status, veteran status, or disability, and to comply with state law prohibiting discrimination on the basis of a person's sexual orientation.

To this end, Boston College has designated its Executive Director for Institutional Diversity to coordinate its efforts to comply with and carry out its responsibilities to prevent discrimination in accordance with state and federal laws. Any applicant for admission or employment, and all students, faculty members, and employees, are welcome to raise any questions regarding this policy with the Office for Institutional Diversity. In addition, any person who believes that an act of unlawful discrimination has occurred at Boston College may raise this issue with the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights of the United States Department of Education.
