You are free to choose any lender that participates in the Federal Family Education Loan Program (FFELP) to fund your Federal PLUS Loan. To make the selection process easier, Boston College has selected this group of lenders for our suggested lender list. Boston College conducts extensive market research and chooses lenders for this list based on the quality of their borrower benefits and customer service. If you select a lender from this list, you can be assured that the benefits you will receive are among the best in the industry and that your lender will provide you with excellent customer service.

Once you have chosen a lender for your Grad PLUS loan, visit American Student Assistance's website at <http://www.amsa.com>. Then click on "ASA Direct" to apply for a Grad PLUS loan.

Please note that if you go directly to a lender's website they will tell you to contact Boston College.
