

Jeffrey J. Malanson
 Ph.D. Candidate
 Department of History
 Boston College
 140 Campanella Way
 Chestnut Hill, MA 02467
<http://www2.bc.edu/~malanson/>

Education

Ph.D. in History, Boston College, in progress – passed Comprehensive Exams with distinction, December 2006; expected date of graduation 2010/2011

Concentration: Early American History

Dissertation: Addressing America: Washington's Farewell and the Making of National Culture, Politics, and Diplomacy, 1796-1850

Advisors: David Quigley, Seth Jacobs, Drew McCoy

M.A. in History, Clark University, 2004.

Concentration: Early American History

Thesis: The Monroe Doctrine Revisited: Its Origins, Principles, and Intent

Advisor: Wim Klooster

B.A. in History with Highest Honors, magna cum laude, Clark University, 2003.

Concentration: Early American History, Minor in American Government

Honors Thesis: The Symbiotic Evolution and Complex Relationship of the Electoral College and Political Parties, 1787-1804

Advisor: Drew McCoy

Publications

Jeffrey J. Malanson. "The Congressional Debate over U.S. Participation in the Congress of Panama, 1825-1826: Washington's Farewell Address, Monroe's Doctrine, and the Fundamental Principles of U.S. Foreign Policy." Diplomatic History 30, no. 5 (November 2006): 813-838.

Robert G. Pontius Jr and Jeffrey Malanson. "Comparison of the Structure and Accuracy of Two Land Change Models." International Journal of Geographical Information Science 19, no. 2 (February 2005): 243-265.

Teaching

Teaching Assistant, American Civilization I, Fall 2007

Teaching Assistant, Globalization I and II (Boston College History Core), Fall 2006 and Spring 2007
 Responsibilities included leading weekly discussions; grading all quizzes, papers, and a final exam for approximately sixty students; holding weekly office hours; and giving one course lecture.

Teaching Assistant, Atlantic World I and II (Boston College History Core), Fall 2005 and Spring 2006
 Responsibilities included leading weekly discussions; grading all papers and exams for approximately sixty students; and holding weekly office hours.

Presentations

"George Washington, the Farewell Address, and the Principles of American Foreign Policy," invited lecture, George Washington Symposium, Alexandria, VA, February 2007.

Professional Memberships

- Society for Historians of American Foreign Policy (SHAFR)
- Society for Historians of the Early American Republic (SHEAR)

Honors / Awards

- Awarded a five year university fellowship at Boston College (2004)
- Vouras Award for academic achievement in the social sciences (Clark University – 2003)

Academic Employment

Researcher – Revolution Worcester Documentary (June-August 2004)

Conducted historical research for a documentary being created by WCCA TV 13 in Worcester, MA based upon The First American Revolution by Ray Raphael.

Researcher – Zuckerman-Spaeder LLP (May-August 2003)

Conducted research at the American Antiquarian Society in Worcester, MA in New York newspapers (1784-1845) dealing with Indian land transactions with the state of New York.

Academic References

David Quigley (dissertation advisor), Associate Professor of History and Director of Graduate Studies, Boston College

Seth Jacobs (dissertation reader), Associate Professor of History, Boston College

Drew McCoy (dissertation reader), Jacob and Frances Hiatt Professor of History, Chair of History Department and Director of History Graduate Program, Clark University

Teaching References

David Northrup, Professor of History, Boston College

Alan Rogers, Professor of History, Boston College