

Curriculum Vitae

Christopher Riedel

432-B, History Department, 21 Campanella Way
Chestnut Hill, MA 02467

Email: riedelc@bc.edu ♦ Phone: (703) 577-3616

Education:

Boston College

PhD Candidate, History
Advisor: Robin Fleming

2008 – Present

University of Virginia

BA with High Distinction, History (minor in Religious Studies)
Distinguished Majors Thesis: “Both Heaven and Earth: The Spiritual and Physical Impact of Jerusalem on Western Europe, 700-814”

2002 – 2006

Teaching Experience:

Teaching Assistant, Boston College: Islam and Global Modernity

Fall 2009

Awards and Fellowships:

Presidential Fellowship, Boston College

2008 – 2014

The Stephen Innes Prize for the Theme of Community in History

May 2006

Research Interests:

Anglo-Saxon pilgrimage; the place of Jerusalem in Western thought before the Crusades;
medieval hagiography and exegesis

Conference Presentations:

“Instructing Pilgrims with Miracles: Lantfred’s manipulation of Swithun’s vitae,” 5th Annual Anglo-Saxon Studies Consortium (ASSC) Graduate Conference, University of Connecticut, February 2009