U.S. News & World Report Ranks Boston College's Full-time MBA Program #41.

U.S. News & World Report's 2007 edition of America's Best Graduate Schools has just been released. We are pleased to report that the Carroll School at Boston College ranks 41st among full-time MBA programs, placing it in the top 10% of AACSB accredited American business schools.

The Carroll School ranks 15th among part-time MBA programs and first in New England. The Carroll School also ranks #24 in the Finance Specialty Ranking category. These rankings are based on measures of reputation, placement success, and student selectivity.

"The goal at the Carroll School is to foster in each student the ideal of ever to excel. We are pleased that U.S. News & World Report and other leading international publications have again recognized our pursuit of excellence," says Dean Andrew Boynton.
