

First Year Professional Development Seminar
Peer Advisor Application
Fall 2007

Thank you for your interest in becoming a Peer Advisor for the Lynch School's First Year Professional Development Seminar. As a peer advisor you will work closely with the class of 2011, facilitating students' transition into Boston College and the field of education/human services. To become a Peer Advisor you must be a sophomore, junior, or senior in the Lynch School during the 2007-08 academic year. You must also be available to meet with your group on Tuesday or Thursday from 3-4pm. There are also a limited number of sections that will meet on Tuesday or Thursday from 7-8pm.

Please complete the following application. You may submit a hard copy of your application in Campion 104 or you may send the document as an attachment via email to scalpata@bc.edu or kaczmars@bc.edu. Accepted candidates will be notified of their placement over the summer.
