Foreword

The Boston College Fact Book is a summary of significant statistics gathered from various sources throughout the University. Once again, we wish to extend sincere thanks and appreciation for the excellent cooperation and assistance received from these many sources.

The purpose of the Fact Book is to produce a single-source publication and reference document touching upon and integrating all aspects of the institution's people and its operations. We do wish to point out to all users that the information presented herein was compiled at a specific time — September-October, 1988 — to reflect the Academic Year 1987-1988, as well as the most current enrollment statistics for 1988-1989.

The majority of the information is extracted from management reports produced on a regular basis by the various source offices. When reviewing the figures presented we advise you to always note the time frame referenced in the individual tables, and to contact responsible offices should you have further questions.

With this 17th edition, we continue our efforts to produce a Fact Book that provides both current information and an historical perspective. We welcome suggestions for additional data and improvements.

Boston College A Brief History

Boston College was founded by the Society of Jesus in 1863, and is one of twenty-eight Jesuit colleges and universities in the United States. With three teachers and twenty-two students, the school opened its doors on September 5, 1864. As long as it remained a small liberal arts college, the faculty was predominantly Jesuit, but today's full-time faculty is comprised of 36 Jesuits and 536 laymen and women. Part-time faculty positions are held by 20 Jesuits, in addition to 12 Jesuit members of the university administration.

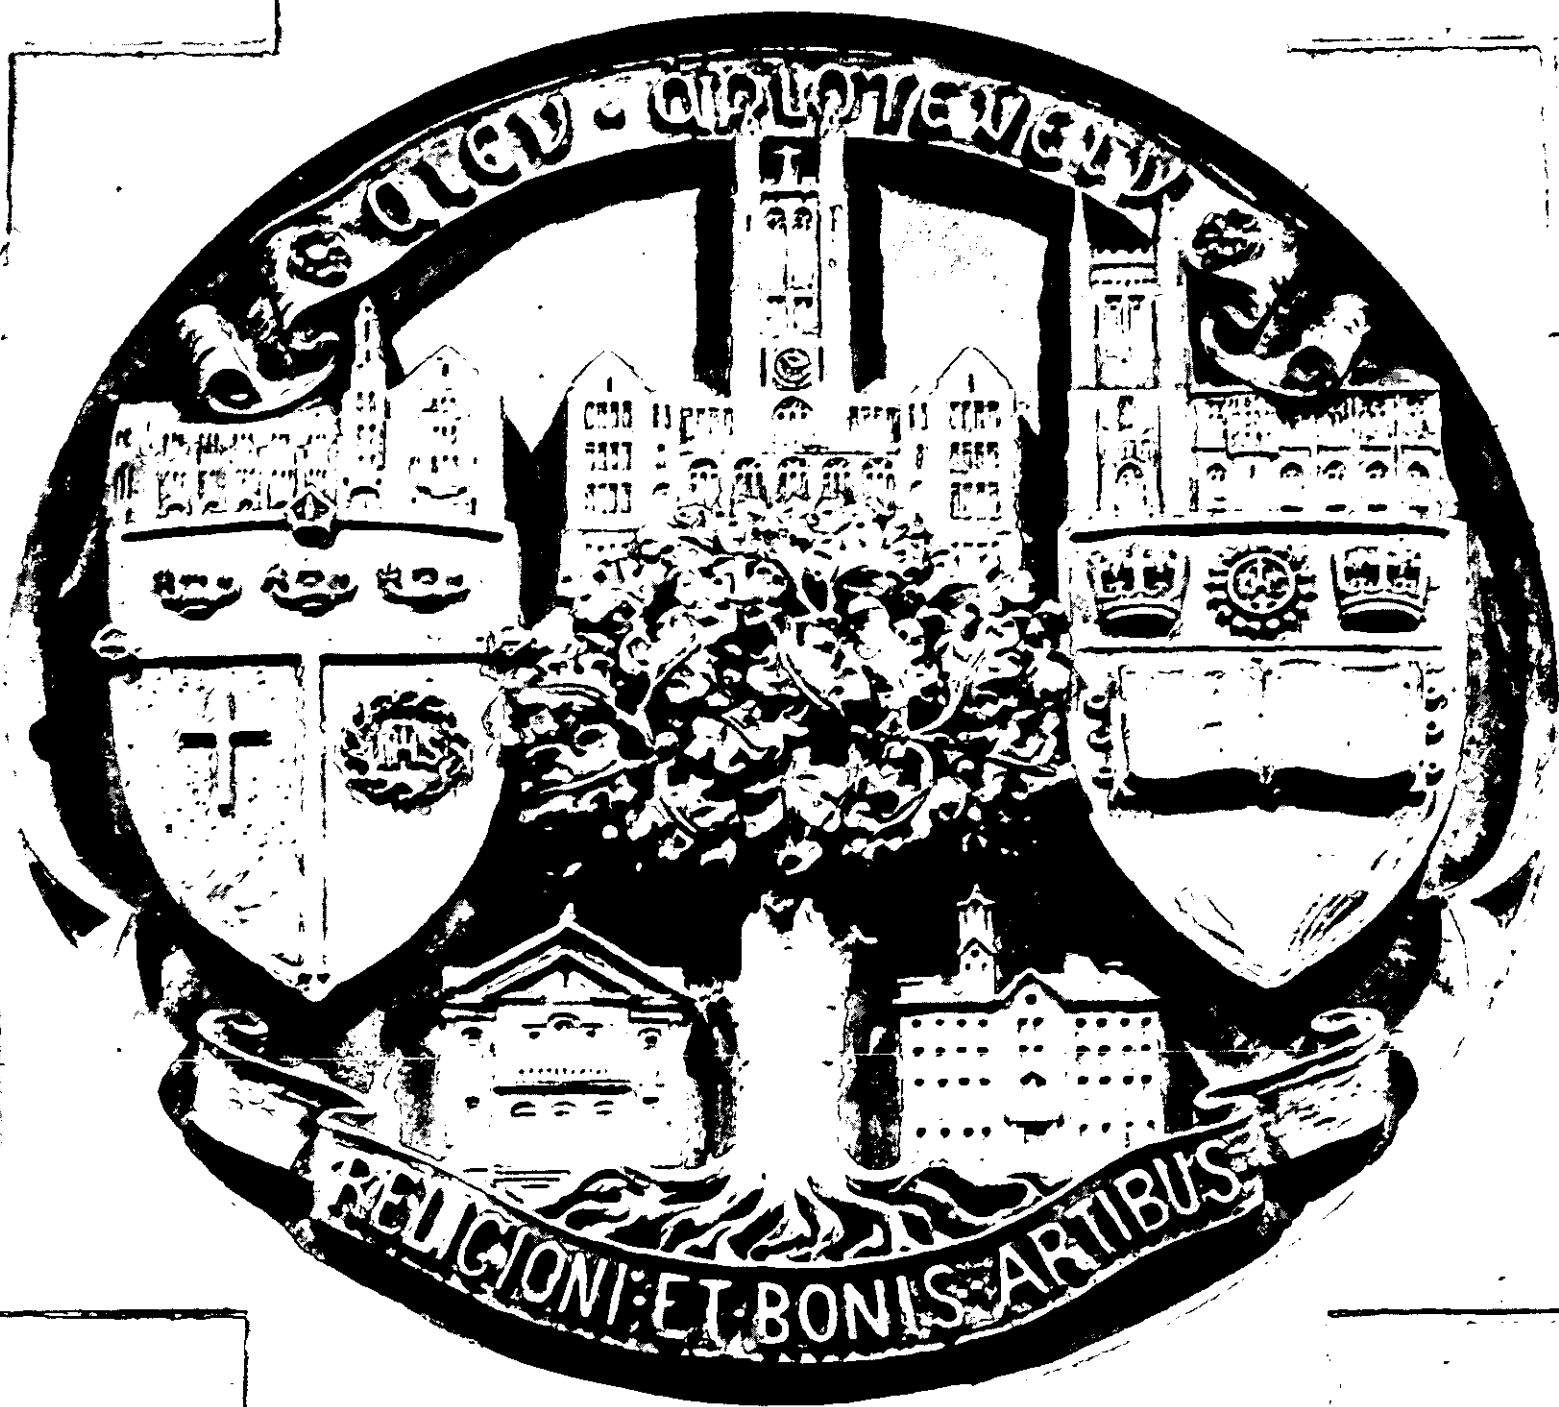

Originally located on Harrison Avenue in the South End of Boston, where it shared quarters with the Boston College High School, the College outgrew its urban setting toward the end of its first fifty years. A new location was selected in Chestnut Hill, then almost rural, and four parcels of land were acquired in 1907. A design competition for the development of the campus was won by the firm of Maginnis and Walsh, and ground was broken on June 19, 1909, for the construction of Gasson Hall. It is located on the site of the Lawrence farmhouse, in the center of the original tract of land purchased by Father Gasson, and is built largely of stone taken from a quarry which occupied part of the sites of Devlin, Higgins, and Cushing Halls. The foundations were blasted out of solid ledge. Because of its historic value, Gasson was completely restored in 1976 in order to preserve its familiar Gothic spires for future generations of students and alumni.

Later purchases doubled the size of the property, with the addition of the upper campus in 1941, and the lower campus with the purchase of the Lawrence Basin and adjoining land in 1949. In 1974 Boston College acquired Newton College of the Sacred Heart, a mile-and-a-half from the main campus. With fifteen handsome Georgian buildings standing in a park-like estate of forty acres, it is now the site of the Boston College Law School, as well as several academic departments, and dormitories housing over 800 students, primarily freshmen.

Though incorporated as a University since its beginning, it was not until its second half-century that Boston College began to fill out the dimensions of its University charter. The Summer Session was inaugurated in 1924; the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences in 1925; the Law School, 1929; the Evening College, 1929; the Graduate School of Social Work, 1936; the College of Business Administration, 1938. The latter, along with its Graduate School established in 1957, is now known as the School of Management. The Schools of Nursing and Education were founded in 1947 and 1952, respectively. Weston Observatory, founded in 1928, was accepted as a Department of Boston College in 1947, offering courses in geophysics and geology to graduate students.

In 1927 Boston College conferred one earned bachelor's degree and fifteen master's degrees on women through the Extension Division, the precursor of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, the Evening College, and the Summer Session. By 1970 all undergraduate programs had become coeducational. Today women students comprise 57 percent of the University's enrollment, and 44 percent of a total alumni body of over 93,900.

Now the fourth largest private university in New England, with full- and part-time enrollment of over 14,000, Boston College consists of eleven schools, colleges, and institutes offering thirteen degree programs and one certification program.

NOTE: In an effort to minimize statistical detail, the above data does not include Boston College graduate student assistance (approximately $3,715,291 in 1986-87) administered by the various schools and departments. Also excluded are the Nursing Loan Program ($105,700 in 1987-88), a variety of government fellowships or scholarships from fraternal organizations and clubs ($1,266,400 in 1987-88), and Higher Education Loans processed by the Financial Aid Office and disbursed by banks ($15,882,008 in 1987-88), all of which are open to both undergraduate and graduate students. (In addition, the University processed parental loans totaling $3,878,825 from banks and the Massachusetts Education Loan Authority.)

Special Library Services

Computer Search Service

The Boston College Libraries offer a full range of automated search capabilities. Several hundred databases may be accessed online for the retrieval of bibliographic information, text, and statistical information. A researcher may plan the search strategy with a reference librarian and have the librarian perform the search, or the researcher may choose from among a smaller number of databases and, after training, perform the search himself/herself during evening and weekend hours for a lesser fee.

Also available for searching, at no cost, are several databases on CD-ROM, some of which have been networked in a state-of-the-art installation to permit multiple users to share databases. New databases are added regularly. Instruction is available on a regular basis from the Reference Department.

The Law School Library has online access to LEXIS and WESTLAW as well as other databases. Access to some of these files may be limited by contract to members of the Law School community.

The Boston College Libraries facilitate access to many computerized databases in business, economics, and the social sciences on magnetic tape. The tapes are purchased by the Libraries and are housed in the computing facility.

Contact the Reference Dept. for more information, and to arrange for demonstrations, workshops, or presentations to classes or departments.

Automated Catalog

The Boston College Libraries have an automated online catalog which provides access to over half-a-million bibliographical records. The catalog may be searched by author, title, subject, call-number, or keyword in subject headings and titles from terminals in the Libraries and other locations on campus.

Interlibrary Loan

The Interlibrary Loan Service is offered to students, faculty, administrators, and staff to facilitate obtaining materials not available in the Boston College Libraries. Books, photocopies of journal articles, microfilm, theses, and government documents may be borrowed from other libraries. Except for unusual items, the waiting period is from one to four weeks; for anyone willing to use the material at the holding library, a computerized system at the reference desk will provide locations. Request forms and further information are available from the Interlibrary Loan staff in each library.

Boston Library Consortium

The library is a member of the Boston Library Consortium, a group of area libraries which includes Brandeis, Boston University, Tufts, Wellesley, Northeastern, MIT, Massachusetts State Library, Boston Public Library, and the University of Massachusetts System. Faculty and graduate students may apply for a Consortium borrower's card at the reference department in O'Neill. The Consortium maintains a central office at the Boston Public Library. Further information may be found in the User Guide and the Consortium Handbook, available in all libraries.

United States Government Publications

In 1964, Boston College was designated as one of the Federal Depository Libraries for this congressional district. This status entitles the O'Neill Library to receive, on a selective basis, United States government publications at no cost with the stipulation that they be made available to the general public. Most of the material circulates in the same manner as books. Inquiries related to the use of government documents should be directed to the Government Documents Department on the first floor of the O'Neill Library.

Media Services

The Media Services Department on the second floor of O'Neill Library houses information in many formats — videocassettes, videodiscs, 16mm films, phonodiscs, audiocassettes, compact discs, sound filmstrips, and slides. All materials may be used by patrons in individual carrels or, when accompanied by a faculty member, in meeting rooms. Loans are restricted to BC faculty members, administrators, and librarians. The Department collects non-print materials in all subject areas within the university's teaching and research interests.

New England Library Information Network/OCLC

Through membership in the New England Library Information Network (NELINET), our users have online access to publishing, cataloging, and interlibrary loan location information from the data bank of OCLC, Inc. which contains over 18 million bibliographic records from the Library of Congress and from 4,000 other libraries in North America.

Special Collections

Rare and valuable books, manuscripts, and archives form the Special Collections in Burns Library. Access is controlled because of their scarcity, value, or fragile nature. Outstanding collections are listed below. Contact Special Collections for further information.

Hilaire Belloc Collection and Archives, 1870–1953

The world's most complete assemblage of materials dealing with this versatile British Catholic critic, historian, essayist, journalist, novelist, poet, and politician. Includes his personal library, all published works, and most of his correspondence and manuscripts.

Banking Archives

Archives of several banks, including the Hibernia Savings Bank, the Union Warren, The Provident Institution for Savings, and the Yankee Bank for Finance and Savings. Also included is the Savings Banks Association of Massachusetts.

British Catholic Authors (see also Belloc; Chesterton)

Books, archives, letters, etc. of prominent nineteenth and twentieth century writers: Maurice Baring, George Barker, Robert Hugh Benson, Pamela Frankau, Graham Greene, Ronald Knox, Peter Levi, Cardinal Newman, James Spencer Northcote, Evelyn Waugh, and many others.

Gilbert Keith Chesterton Collection, 1874–1936

Extensive collection of this British writer's books, reviews, drawings, and correspondence. Chesterton, like Belloc, was a man of many talents -- essayist, critic, poet, and novelist. A convert to Catholicism, he is perhaps best-known for his Father Brown detective stories.

Citywide Coordinating Council Archives, 1975–1978

Complete records of the council formed to desegregate the Boston school system as ordered by Judge Arthur Garrity.

The Rev. Robert F. Drinan, S.J. Papers

The collection represents an extensive record of Fr. Drinan's service in the U.S. House of Representatives from 1970 to 1980. As the first Roman Catholic priest ever elected to Congress, Fr. Drinan was a unique figure in American politics. The collection includes important material on the impeachment of Richard Nixon, the war in Viet Nam, and the termination of the House Committee on Un-American activities.

Fine Print Collection

Representative collections from modern limited press editions: Foulis Press, Golden Cockerel, Nonesuch, Oriole Press (Ishill), Peppercannister, St. Dominic's, and Stanbrook Abbey.

Irish Collection

Formed by Helen Landreth, the eminent scholar of Robert Emmet and the Irish Rebellion, the collection richly represents the periods 1790–1810 and 1850–1885. Included also are samplings of the Irish literary renaissance poets and playwrights, such as Seamus Heaney, and writers and private presses of Ireland today.

Jesuitana Collection, 1543–1773

Includes rare works dealing with missionary letters written from the Far East in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, works of science, and works on Biblical exegesis and classical scholarship. An original holograph letter from St. Francis Xavier to John III, King of Portugal, dated 31 January 1552 crowns this exceptional body of unusual works.

Rita Kelleher Collection

In recognition of her twenty-five years of service to the School of Nursing, including twenty years as Dean, this collection contains archival, historical, research, and other significant materials in nursing.

Liturgy and Life, 1825–1975

Formed by William J. ## THE SILVIO O. CONTE FORUM

This fall, Boston College proudly opened the most innovative and technologically advanced athletic and convocation center in the nation — the Silvio O. Conte Forum.

The Conte Forum includes a main arena which can accommodate 8,500 fans for basketball and 7,600 for hockey. The facility also houses a 950-seat basketball practice court, offices for the Athletic Association support staff, coaches' offices for virtually all of the University's 31 varsity sports, ticket sales and advanced computer technology to support that operation, film and conference areas, function rooms, practice and training areas, a state-of-the-art sports medicine area, equipment issue area, a 7,000-square foot weight training room, locker rooms, VIP viewing boxes, a concourse with concession and restrooms serving both the Forum and Alumni Stadium, and practice and storage rooms for the Boston College Band.

Attached to Alumni Stadium, the Conte Forum rises to the equivalent of six stories above field level. The east side of the new building also serves as a new upper deck grandstand for the football field.

The arena features two Sony Jumbotron instant replay screens and scoreboards — the first such technologically advanced systems to be installed in any collegiate arena in the nation.

Conte Forum is pre-wired for television broadcast of virtually any sport, lecture, musical or liturgical event. New lighting systems — both in the arena and Alumni Stadium — meet national network specifications.

To give perspective to the size of this magnificent 262,000 square-foot edifice, consider these facts: the structure of the building contains more than 5 million pounds of steel; more than 14.1 miles of piping was required for the rink refrigeration system; and, the outside of the building was finished with some 162,000 bricks.

The $25-million Conte Forum was designed by the architectural firm of Sasaki Associates of Watertown, Mass. Construction, which began in 1986, was by Richard White Sons of Auburndale, Mass.

The Forum is named in the honor of U.S. Rep. Silvio O. Conte, one of the University's most esteemed and distinguished alumni. Rep. Conte's association with Boston College dates back to the 1940's when he attended its undergraduate and law schools — and includes the winning of a football letter in the 1945 season!

Conte received his law degree from Boston College in 1949, and a year later, the Pittsfield native was elected to the Massachusetts State Senate. In 1958, he was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives.

Upon entering Congress, Conte secured a seat on the House Appropriations Committee, and since 1979 has been its ranking minority member. He is also ranking minority member of the Appropriations Subcommittees on Labor, Health and Human Services, and Education, holds seats on the Transportation and Legislative Branch Subcommittees and sits ex officio on all 10 other Appropriations Subcommittees.

In announcing the dedication, Boston College President J. Donald Monan, S.J. cited Conte's "unsurpassed interest in and dedication to the University." Calling Conte "a person of boundless energy, imagination and integrity." Fr. Monan added that the Congressman "has taken a leadership role in the broadest range of issues that affect national welfare: education, medical research, health care, labor, and environmental programs.

Fr. Monan concluded by saying that "Silvio Conte remains one of Congress' most warm and effective personalities, and an alumnus in whom Boston College takes special pride."
