826 Boston is a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting students ages 6-18 with their creative and expository writing skills, and to helping teachers inspire their students to write. Our services are structured around the understanding that great leaps in learning can happen with one-on-one attention and that strong writing skills are fundamental to future success. With this understanding in mind, we provide drop-in tutoring, field trips, after-school workshops, in-schools tutoring, help for English language learners, and assistance with student publications. All of our free programs seek to strengthen each student’s power to express ideas effectively, creatively, confidently, and in his or her individual voice.

Action for Boston Community Development, Inc. (ABCD) was incorporated in 1962, and designated Boston’s antipoverty agency with the passage of the Economic Opportunity Act in 1964. ABCD’s mission is to foster self-sufficiency, empowerment, and neighborhood revitalization by providing services and programs to low-income residents and families of Boston. Today, as the largest non-profit human services agency in the Greater Boston area, ABCD assists more than 100,000 low-income individuals and families annually.

As one of the largest service providers in Massachusetts, Advocates offers quality human service, senior support services, brain injury services and healthcare alternatives. Every day hundreds of individuals and families affected by psychiatric illness, chemical dependency, developmental disabilities, Traumatic or Acquired Brain Injury (TBI/ABI), or other life challenges rely on Advocates for professional assessment and intervention.

Advocates provides a full continuum of mental health and substance abuse services throughout Eastern and Central Massachusetts, including the Greater Boston area. We provide individual supports in a variety of settings, including in-home supports, shared living, 24-hour supports, supported housing, adult foster care, and respite settings.

Breakthrough Greater Boston (BTGB) is transforming urban education for students and teachers. Through six years of intensive, tuition-free, out of school time programming, Breakthrough changes students’ academic trajectories and supports them along the path to four-year college. Simultaneously, BTGB builds the next generation of teachers through competitive recruitment, research-based training, and coaching from master teachers. At BTGB, students and teachers are closing the achievement gap one breakthrough at a time.

City Year

City Year was founded in 1988 on the belief that young people can change the world. City Year is an education focused, nonprofit organization that unites young people of all backgrounds for a year of full-time service to keep students in school and on track to graduation. At City Year’s 27 urban locations across the United States teams of trained young people called corps members serve full-time in schools for the academic year as tutors, mentors and role models. By focusing on attendance, behavior and course performance, which identify students who are at risk of dropping out, corps members are uniquely able to help students and schools succeed.

The College Advising Corps is a non-profit organization that works to increase the rates of college enrollment and completion among low-income, first-generation college and underrepresented high school students. The College Advising Corps places well-trained, recent college graduates from our 23 partner institutions of higher education as full-time advisers in the nation’s persistently lowest-performing schools. The Advising Corps provides the support that high-need students require to navigate the complex processes of college admissions and matriculation and securing financial aid. Advisers also work to foster a college-going culture within the schools they serve, which is one of the best predictors of whether students will pursue higher education at all.

Cradles to Crayons was launched in 2002 by Lynn Margherio with the mission to provide, free of charge, children living in low income and homeless situations from birth to pre-teen the basic essentials they need to feel safe, warm, ready to learn, and valued. By partnering with schools, corporations and community groups for donations, and with social-service organizations serving homeless and low-income families, we connect communities that have with communities that need. We currently serve over 100,000 children per year out of two locations in Boston and Philadelphia. We are expanding nationally to Chicago in 2015.

empowerHER exists for young girls who have experienced the early loss of their mothers. Our organization instills confidence and reduces isolation through a community of sisterhood that offers hope to each of the girls we serve.

empowerHER offers two types of programming and all programs remain at no charge to the family. We host group outings such as our signature Mother's Day Retreat or our Summer Beach Bash. Secondly, empowerHER offers a one-on-one mentor program for girls of any age. We match the young girl with a positive role model from the community and recruit, screen, match and support the mentoring relationship throughout the year.
