Preparing for Study Abroad

- To maximize the study abroad experience, students should prepare themselves by learning about their host country, its history, and culture. Students might want to begin with http://www.britannica.com/ for a summary.
- Students should know what is happening in the news in the host city by reading the local newspaper at: http://www.allyoucanread.com/spanish-newspapers/#Madrid
- Engaging with and adapting to a different culture is an inherent component of study abroad. Students may find the following websites useful to learn about intercultural communication before they leave home: http://www.peacecorps.gov/wws/educators/enrichment/culturematters/index.html
- Customs and traditions in the host country are different from those at home. To learn a little about the local customs and traditions students may want to visit the following website: www.hthstudents.com
- Students and their parents should refer to the Office of International Programs website (www.bc.edu/international) and specifically to the Study Abroad Handbook for more information regarding the experience abroad.
- Prior to departure, students will meet with their International Study Advisor at an orientation to help them further prepare for their study-abroad experience.

On-Site Contact Information

- Ana Peláez, the Boston College On-Site Coordinator, is available in case of an emergency on a 24-hour-basis. Students should make a note of Ana’s contact information before they go abroad, and we encourage students to share this information with their family.

Travel Information

- Students are responsible for making their own travel arrangements. BC in Madrid Complutense students will be met at the airport and picked up the official arrival day, provided they supply the necessary travel information one month prior to departure to the on-site coordinator, Ana Peláez.

- Passport/Visa information:
  Students will need to obtain the following travel documents in order to study in Spain:
  - A passport (valid at least six months beyond the estimated return date).
  - A student visa (students should visit the Consulate of Spain’s website for information regarding student visa requirements and procedures). Their website is: http://www.maeec.es/subwebs/Consulados/Boston/es/home/Paginas/Home.aspx

- Students will receive visa workshop and pre-departure orientation information via e-mail. All workshops and orientations are mandatory.

- For course selection information, please refer to OIP Program Description Course Catalog.
- Course approval information will be found at: http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/academics/courseapproval.html
- Information about Transcripts and grades is available at: http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/academics/transcripts.html
- As a BC student, you are required to take a full load of courses at your host institution abroad. BC program participants can refer to the course load requirement table.
- If you have a learning disability, you should discuss with your ISA whether your host university is able to make appropriate accommodations; if so, bring documentation from your doctor or the BC Disabilities Office to support any request for accommodations at your host university.

Housing

- Home stay and residence halls are the housing options available to students attending Complutense. Students are required to fill out housing forms included in the BC application package. BC in Madrid is responsible for housing assignments for Complutense students.
- Students will be billed by BC for housing. Additional information about the estimated cost of housing may be found at: http://www.bc.edu/content/bc/offices/international/financesawards.html
- Meals:
  - Home-stay: All meals included.
  - Residence halls: Most meals included, except weekends in some residences. These may be closed during Easter and Christmas breaks.
- Local Transportation: Transportation pass included in program for the first four months.
- Cell phones and rental information are supplied at orientation. Costs are separate from the program.

Wellness, Health and Safety

- HTH Worldwide Insurance Services is an emergency health and emergency services provider. All registered BC students are covered by OIP’s blanket policy while living and traveling outside of the United States. For more information, visit the following website: http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/travel-health-safety.html. You are encouraged to consult HTH on-line services for health and safety information about all world destinations, travel illnesses, and as a resource for international medical providers.
- Make sure that you have had any required or recommended vaccinations for your travel destinations by consulting the Centers for Disease Control website at www.cdc.gov.
- Students are advised to visit the U.S. State Department website: http://www.state.gov for important travel information including travel advisories.
- Adjusting to a new culture and environment can be stressful. Students will have a smoother transition by making sure that they prepare to remain healthy. Following are some websites that provide important information and advice about how to have a healthy and safe experience abroad:

http://kidshealth.org/teen/your_mind/emotions/culture_shock.html
http://www.kwintessential.co.uk/cultural-services/articles/cultureshock-stages.html

- Be aware that the manner in which medical help is obtained, the way patients are treated, the conditions of medical facilities, and how health care is afforded may be quite different from U.S. practices. U.S. health care values, assumptions, and methods are not universally practiced; even notions regarding the onset of an illness or the timing of expert attention may be considered culturally based.

- Refer to your Study Abroad Handbook for further information about health and safety issues including women, LGBT, disabled people and others.

- In the event of a large-scale emergency, such as a natural disaster, you should first text your onsite coordinator; follow the emergency procedures discussed in the onsite orientation; and call or text your parents to let them know where you are and that you are safe.

- The emergency number in Spain is 112.

- Students are required to visit the OIP website for additional information about Health and Safety:
  http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/travel-health-safety.html
  BC emergency contact information:
  OIP (617) 552-3827 (Monday to Friday 9 a.m. – 5 p.m.)
  BCPD (617) 552-4444 (outside of normal business hours)

- Alcohol and Drugs

  In many cultures, alcohol consumption is an acceptable part of the culture and people are taught to drink in moderation at home. Many countries have a lower drinking age than the U.S. while other countries have drinking and drug abuse laws that may be more severe. Students are subject to the laws of their host country, so if students choose to drink alcohol abroad, they should always drink responsibly and be knowledgeable about their host country’s laws by visiting:
  http://travel.state.gov/travel/tips/tips_1232.html#drug_offenses

Finances

- The OIP website provides information about estimated expenses for study abroad:
  http://www.bc.edu/content/bc/offices/international/financesawards.html

- Banking information: Students are encouraged to use ATM machines. Please contact onsite coordinator.

- Scholarships and Financial Aid information can be found at:
  http://www.bc.edu/offices/international/Scholarship_Opportunities.html

Returning to BC

- Students should complete a Program Evaluation. Upon completion of their program, OIP will e-mail the link to the evaluation

- Students may mentor an exchange student from the host university by contacting oipexchange@bc.edu

- It is not uncommon when students return from studying abroad to experience “reverse” culture shock.
