Prosperity and Generosity: New Scientific and Spiritual Knowledge about Wealth in an Age of Affluence

Project Leader(s)
Paul Schervish
Director of the Center on Wealth and Philanthropy
Professor of Sociology
Boston College

Grantee(s)
Center on Wealth and Philanthropy Boston College (Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts)

Description
This grant supported the inclusion of questions related to religion and spirituality to a survey that measured attitudes, practices, and personal philosophies of high wealth households and the role that religious and spiritual factors play in decisions regarding philanthropy and care for others. Survey results were contained in a technical report produced by the Center on Wealth and Philanthropy.

Grant Amount: $100,000
Start Date: June 2008
End Date: September 2010
Grant ID: 12455

Grantee Website
Center on Wealth and Philanthropy