A Minor in Management and Leadership for College of Arts and Sciences and Lynch School of Education Students

Overview

A minor in Management and Leadership is offered to students in the College of Arts and Sciences and Lynch School of Education who are interested in pursuing management careers. This minor focuses on the behavioral side of management by offering courses designed to increase students’ knowledge of leadership and management and build skills in these areas. Students must complete six courses offered by the Management and Organization Department.

The Management and Leadership minor will help students develop and enhance their ability to lead and manage people and organizations. More specifically, students will:

- Develop an appreciation for the fundamentals and complexity of success leadership;
- Identify exemplary leadership in themselves and others and
- Demonstrate effective leadership and management skills.

Required Courses

- MGMT1021 Organizational Behavior or
  MGMT1031 Organizational Behavior Honors
- MGMT2127 Leadership
- An additional four MGMT Electives

Possible management electives can be found on the Management and Organization website:
