Listening Session: Joint Employment under Department of Labor Rules
James Toews is a Senior Advisor at the Administration for Community Living (ACL) has been ACL's point person on the new Department of Labor companion and live-in worker rules, working closely with the Department of Labor. Mr. Toews ran Oregon's Long-Term Care system for many years prior to his post with ACL.
On the line

Mollie Murphy, FMS Lead with NRCPDS

Lucia Cucu, J.D., Senior Policy Analyst with NRCPDS
Listening Session

- We want to hear your questions
  - We may not have the information today to answer them, but we want to hear them to shape our future assistance and work

- We want to hear your concerns
  - We may not have solutions today, but we want to hear them to shape our future assistance and work
Next Steps

- NRCPDS to host a call with representatives from the Department of Labor to discuss some of the questions and issues raised today and other questions and issues.
- NRCPDS to issue information on travel time scenarios and options for programs to come into or maintain compliance with the new companionship and live-in worker rules.