Position: Intern or Practicum Student

Hours per week: 10 (with the potential for more)

We are seeking a motivated graduate student for the 2010 – 2011 academic year interested in an internship or practicum experience working with students on academic probation.

Description:
The Probation Academic Success Seminar intern works closely with the Coordinator of the PASS program in advising students on academic probation. This program is designed to assist students placed on academic probation discover and develop learning strategies for academic success. In addition to weekly class meetings, students enrolled in PASS are required to attend mandatory study halls each week.

The PASS intern will teach 1-3 sections of the PASS course, monitor the study halls for students on probation and hold open office hours for student meetings. As an instructor and study hall monitor the PASS intern will be an additional resource for students needing extra academic support and should be prepared to assist students with basic study skill strategies. The PASS intern will have the opportunity to collaborate with the PASS Coordinator in shaping the classroom lesson plans and developing strategies to connect with the academic probation population.

Preferred start date: January 10 for a few hours a week prior to the beginning of the semester on January 18.
