Job Description
Holy Name Jr.Sr High School is seeking a faith-filled, energetic, committed person to lead its Theology Department and its Campus Ministry Program. The successful candidate will relate well to middle and high school students and will, through attitude and deed, model behavior that will draw students to our Catholic faith. The ideal candidate should possess the education and teaching experience that will allow them to lead this extremely important department at our school. Bachelor’s degree in Theological Studies or related field is required; Master’s degree is preferred. Teacher certification in any discipline is a strong asset. A strong commitment to one’s faith is essential, as well as a strong desire to work with youth and adults in a collaborative environment to find ways of connecting the practice of our faith with real-world ministry experiences. The most important asset the successful candidate will have is a true calling and passion for our Catholic faith and sharing it with the students, faculty, staff, and administration of Holy Name in a manner rooted in the love Christ asks us all to share with one another.
