

Remembering the Holocaust: Voices of Survivors

July 18-20, 2022 | 10:00 am - 12:00 pm ET

Registration fee: $10

For more information and to register please visit:

bc.edu/voices

Boston College, in collaboration with the International Institute for Holocaust Research, Yad Vashem, invites you to a three-day virtual seminar on remembering the experiences of women and children during the Holocaust. Each day consists of a lecture followed by small group conversation for further reflection. Online resources are also available throughout the seminar.

SEMINAR TOPICS:

July 18: Understanding Memory Construction

This presentation is based on the testimonies of Holocaust survivors who told their stories to different collections over time, including: The VHA, USHMM, Yad Vashem, David Boder Interviews and The Central Jewish Historical Commission.

July 19: Women's Voices During the Holocaust

This presentation follows the lives of Jewish women in the Auschwitz-Birkenau concentration and extermination camp between 1942-1945 and focuses on the uniqueness of the female experience in this space.

July 20: The Voices of Hidden Children

This presentation examines the everyday lives of women religious on the eve of the Second World War, and will also examine letters written by hidden children, particularly those from the convent of Massip near Toulouse, operated by the Sisters of the Company of Mary, Our Lady.

BOSTON COLLEGE
School of Theology and Ministry
CONTINUING EDUCATION

THE INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE
FOR HOLOCAUST RESEARCH

