Position Overview:
The Office of Residential Life strives to create a safe and welcoming environment for all students by engaging our residents on topics related to diversity and inclusion, faith and spirituality, responsible social activities, and academics.

Summer Operations Assistants are responsible for serving as customer service associates addressing all components of on-campus housing for BC students and summer guests. This can include, but not limited to, serving as administrative support in the Residential Life Summer Welcome Center or Residential Life Office in Maloney Hall, and physically preparing the residence halls for incoming and outgoing groups/students. Specifically, this position assists with check-in/-out of guests at assigned locations, preparing and auditing keys/access cards, and answering the phone and in-person questions from summer guests/students.
Operations Assistants are also responsible to prepare rooms for occupancy, which includes but is not limited to making beds, supplying toiletries, resetting furniture, and addressing facilities concerns. Summer Operations Assistants must maintain a positive attitude and deliver a high level of customer service to students and guests at all times.

As a member of the Residential Life team, you are expected to uphold high standards of personal and professional conduct. Student positions in Residential Life might require administrative or physical work depending on the role, and all staff members are expected to deliver a high level of customer service to students, families, university staff, and community members at all times while performing their role.

In the course of this role, you may become aware of private information about a student or departmental process. It is expected that you will maintain the privacy of all information you learn in the course of your role, both online and when communicating with others in or out of the office in addition to agreeing to the terms of the Student Leader Confidentiality Agreement.

Responsibilities:

While you may be assigned additional or one-time tasks in a given week, below is a list of some of the more common tasks you may perform. These include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Attend required check-in meetings to receive assignments and be made aware of any ingoing/outgoing campus groups
- Answer Residential Life department phones, take messages, and respond to questions of guests and summer students; triage issues to coordinators or professional staff as needed
- Assist with key and access card packet audits and preparation for all students and guests.
- Assist with the check-in/-out of camps, conferences, and student housing guests
- Maintain a clean, organized, and professional working environment throughout all Residential Life spaces through the duration of summer (Welcome Center, Main Office, Storage Areas, etc.)
- Maintain appropriate and detailed records, including but not limited to audits, daily log,
- Assist with check-in of Summer residents and Fall early arrival students
- Attend weekly Summer Operations Staff meetings and scheduled 1-on-1s with supervisor
- Prepare all guest rooms by making beds/placing linens, providing toiletries and other guest amenities, resetting furniture, to the highest standards according to guidelines.
- Assist with conducting room inspections prior to guest arrival to ensure quality
- Conduct post check-out room inspections including but limited to entering work orders and collecting linen, keys/access cards, and any items left behind by guests.
- Assist with receipt of linen delivery, pick-up and storage
- Other duties as assigned
