Undergraduate Government of Boston College

The Undergraduate Government of Boston College (UGBC) is a student government created to enrich the lives of students attending Boston College. Its purpose is to serve on behalf of students' interests and to help cultivate an engaged and caring student community. Furthermore, the student government works to actualize the rights and responsibilities of students to the greater community, while promoting growth academically, socially, and spiritually.

University Communication Policies and Student Responsibilities

Official communications of the University with its currently enrolled students, including notices of academic and administrative matters and communications from faculty and administrative staff, may be sent via postal service, campus mail, or e-mail. To assure that these communications arrive in a timely manner, all enrolled students have the responsibilities to access their e-mail accounts regularly, to check for official University communications, and to respond as necessary to such communications.

For purposes of written communication, the student's local and permanent addresses on record at Student Services will be regarded as the student's official local and permanent residences. All students have a responsibility to provide both local and permanent mailing addresses, and to enter corrections at www.bc.edu/myservices if the addresses are not accurate in University records.
Use of Boston College Indicia (University Trademarks and Logos)

The Use of Boston College Indicia Policy is designed to regulate the use of Boston College’s indicia in order to protect the proprietary interests of the University, and to maintain graphic standards and a visual identity that reinforce the mission and values of Boston College.

Volunteer and Service Learning Center

The Volunteer and Service Learning Center, part of the Division of Mission and Ministry, is the primary portal for all service activity offered at Boston College, with a strong commitment to the Greater Boston community. The center supports the education and formation of students by promoting conscientious service in the context of Catholic social teaching and contemporary Jesuit education.
